Message from the Superintendent

TOWNSHIP OF OCEAN SCHOOL DISTRICT

#SpartanLegacy

Dear Spartan Families,

I hope this communication finds you well. As we enter March, we can feel the season changing yet again and look forward to the budding Spring. Students are hard at work here in the Home of the Spartans both in and out of the classroom.

Our eleventh grade students are sitting for the New Jersey Graduation Proficiency Assessment this week. Our Multilingual Learners throughout the district, K-12, continue to take their ACCESS for ELLs assessment intended to measure students' acquisition of the English language. Our twelfth graders prepare for a variety of tasks marking the end of their high school careers, including for some, the Brookdale placement test later this month.

Outside the classroom walls, our students are performing on stage in our spring musicals, readying their works of art for our District Wide Art Show, and our elementary students are practicing for their talent shows and follies. Spring sports kick off this week. As you can see, there is quite a bit of activity in each of our schools this month. Come out to support our Spartans!

I wish all Spartan families a happy and healthy Spring season.

Sincerely,
Kelly E. Weldon
Superintendent of Schools

¡Legados espartanos en proceso!

Mensaje del Superintendente

#SpartanLegacy

Queridas familias espartanas:

Espero que esta comunicación te llegue bien. A medida que entramos en marzo, podemos sentir que la estación cambia una vez más y esperamos con ansias la llegada de la primavera. Los estudiantes están trabajando arduamente aquí en Home of the Spartans, tanto dentro como fuera del aula.

Esta semana, nuestros estudiantes de undécimo grado se presentarán a la Evaluación de competencias para la graduación de Nueva Jersey. Nuestros estudiantes multilingües de todo el distrito, desde jardín de infantes hasta 12.º grado, continúan tomando la evaluación ACCESS for ELLs, cuyo objetivo es medir la adquisición del idioma inglés por parte de los estudiantes. Nuestros estudiantes de duodécimo grado se preparan para una variedad de tareas que marcan el final de sus carreras en la escuela secundaria, incluida, para algunos, la prueba de nivelación de Brookdale a finales de este mes.

Fuera de las aulas, nuestros estudiantes están actuando en el escenario en nuestros musicales de primavera, preparando sus obras de arte para nuestra muestra de arte del distrito, y nuestros estudiantes de primaria están practicando para sus concursos de talentos y locuras. Los deportes de primavera comienzan esta semana. Como puede ver, hay bastante actividad en cada una de nuestras escuelas este mes. ¡Venga a apoyar a nuestros Spartans!

Deseo a todas las familias espartanas una feliz y saludable temporada de primavera.

Atentamente, Kelly E. Weldon Superintendente de Escuelas
