UNCIALS, WATERFOWL & ALL THAT:

TANGIBLE GIFTS TO ENHANCE CLASSROOM LEARNING

Two years ago, Fordham Prep received a special delivery.

The package contained 11 double-sided illuminated manuscripts from the late medieval period in Italy. This was the beginning of several batches of historical pieces that would arrive at the Prep over the next few years.

In 2022, Frank Frecentese, Jr. '87 added to the collection; 18 additional folios from a medieval antiphonal arrived, as well as over 80 pieces of art by 19th-century naturalists and ornithologists J.W. and J.J. Audubon.

Notable pieces in the Prep's holdings include folios from a 14th-century Latin Florentine gradual, a book of chants to be sung at Mass, as well as Audubon's 1838 American Flamingo.

The generous donor, Frecentese, gifted this collection to share his love for art history with the Prep. He and his brother, Thomas '89, made the donation in honor of their late father, Frank Frecentese, Sr.

The Frecenteses' only request was that the artifacts serve as more than just decoration. They wanted the Prep faculty to find creative ways to teach art, language, and history using these unique items.

"I'm happy to support the Prep in a practical and tangible way," said Frecentese. "I was excited by the thought of giving something that the students can actually use and learn from," he added.

Frecentese caught up with Brian Carney, Interim President at the time, during an alumni engagement trip to Miami this past school year. Over dinner, they discussed pinpointing additional works of art that could help Prep teachers with lessons on colonial history and religion.

"He mentioned to me that art collecting is something he's been involved with for many years and he's so glad that he found a way for this to benefit the Prep," Carney recalled.

School archivist and Classics teacher Louis DiGiorno '88 P'26 was tasked with writing a curriculum that would allow students to engage meaningfully with the art.

"Yes, I am a Greek and Latin teacher," DiGiorno pointed out, "but my actual training is in medieval studies. Designing a class centered around the manuscripts was a fantastic opportunity — both for me and for the discipuli."

"I WAS EXCITED BY THE THOUGHT OF GIVING SOMETHING THAT THE STUDENTS CAN ACTUALLY USE AND LEARN FROM."

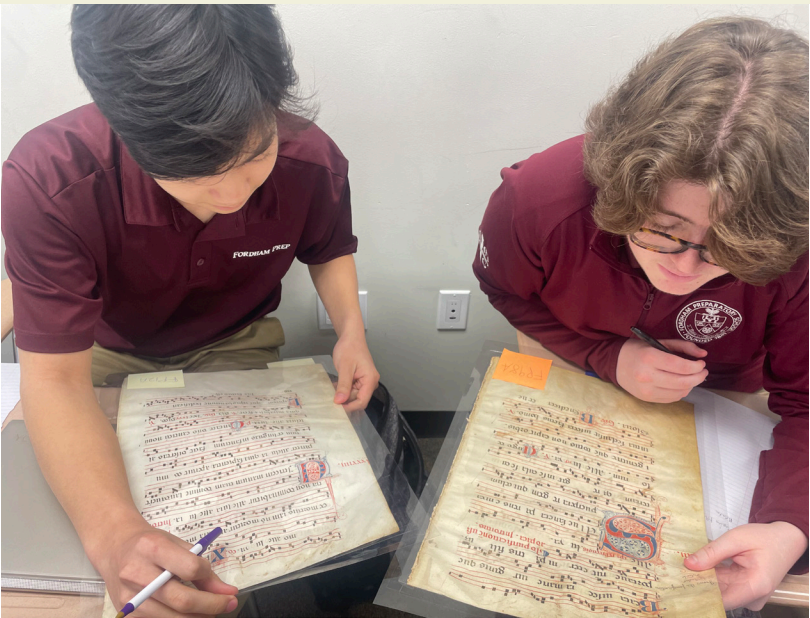

— Frank Frecentese, Jr. '87

Appraisals state the graduals were possibly written for a church choir at the San Remigio di Firenze in the 1350s.

"THEY DID REMARKABLY WELL," SAID DIGIORNO. "MOST OF THEM CAME WITHIN A CENTURY OF THE ACTUAL CREATION DATE. THE MEDIEVALIST IN ME WAS VERY PROUD OF THEM."

— School archivist and Classics teacher, Louis DiGiorno '88 P'26

Prep Rams reading the donated manuscripts in An Introduction to Latin Palæography, a course taught by DiGiorno.

The resulting course, which debuted during the 2022–23 school year, was called An Introduction to Latin Palæography, an enrichment course for students in the upper levels of Latin or Greek.

The course began with an overview of the history of writing in general — and of the Roman alphabet specifically — and then, for three quarters, moved down through the centuries week by week, as students learned the fundamental vocabulary, skills, and techniques required to attempt to read historical Western scripts from antiquity down through the late Middle Ages.

"The boys were particularly fond of uncials," said DiGiorno, "a style of script that was used for hundreds of years in the early Middle Ages. Sure, they got very good at reading reproduced uncial manuscripts, but I think they just really liked the name — after all: uncial is a very cool-sounding word. Thank you, St. Jerome!"

During the fourth quarter, as the final project for the course, each neophyte paleographer worked with one of the actual donated manuscript folios — transcribing the text, and doing his best to identify the style of script and time period that produced them.

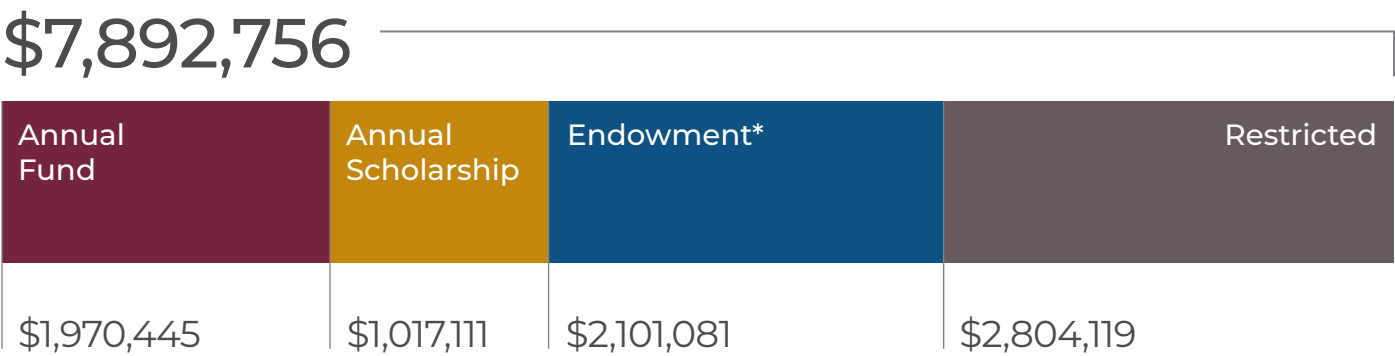

"They did remarkably well," said DiGiorno. "Most of them came within a century of the actual creation date. The medievalist in me was very proud of them. And, in all fairness, they did a fairly good job translating the texts, too — actually not a requirement for paleographic work. Kudos to my fellow Prep Latin teachers, one and all!"

We asked DiGiorno if he had any plans for the Audubon pieces in the future.

"I'll work with the Visual and Performing Arts Department, sure — but a course that studies the historical and social forces that informed these 19th-century works seems a natural fit for a school that was founded in the middle of the 19th century." ■

FOR FUTURE RAMS

New Fitness & Wellness Center

I remember when the gym was just a benching and squatting rack near the maintenance room,” recalled Tim McGrath '87 P'25, former Prep football and basketball player. Said benching and squatting rack was located in what many alumni remember to be a closet-sized workout space.

Jennifer and Tim McGrath '87 P'25 on Rowen Athletic Field. “This was just a dirt patch when I was a student here,” Mr. McGrath remembered.

The Prep has come a long way since Tim's years as a Ram. The addition of a full weight room in the intramural gym in 2007 gave students more space to comfortably train and work out. This improved the Rams' competitive edge in sports and, more importantly, helped the Prep cultivate the Jesuit value of wellness of mind and body in students.

Recent initiatives such as our Mindful Awareness Practice Program (MAPP) and the Athletics Strategic Plan resulted in a complete renovation of the intramural gym in the summer of 2023. The new Fitness & Wellness Center will include a mezzanine level, doubling the existing square footage, to provide dedicated sports stations and workout zones for student-athletes.

Tim and Jennifer are huge proponents of ensuring that their son, Brendan '25, and all future Rams have the tools they need to enjoy a well-rounded Prep experience. When Interim President Brian Carney proposed supporting the gym renovations, Tim and Jennifer felt it was the perfect fit.

“Supporting the new Fitness & Wellness Center was a good combination of Tim and Brendan's Prep experiences,” according to Jennifer. Brendan played football at the Prep his freshman year and is a member of the cross-country and lacrosse teams.

“Our son is having a great experience at the Prep and I'm just so happy and so grateful that he is seen and supported here, so we felt compelled to contribute. It's been such a gift to Brendan to have these great experiences and I want those experiences to continue for others as well,” she said.

Tim remembers chaperoning his son's Freshman Retreat and watching him play on the Prep's sports teams: “Seeing Brendan having the same experiences I did and realizing that the Prep environment feels the same as when I went here — just that bond [amongst the students] made me so proud that Brendan was going to be able to experience that and he's really embraced it.”

The McGraths support other areas of the Prep as well, including the Annual Fund and the IGNITE Benefit, the Prep's major fundraiser of the year, which benefits the scholarship program and academic enhancements for all students. As with many current parents, their generosity stems from simply observing Rams in action.

“I think the best thing about helping out on the Freshman Retreat was seeing the older boys and how invested they are. Also seeing so many of the boys doing volunteer work and their talents, too — some of these young men are just amazing,” Mrs. McGrath beamed. ■

PARENT PROFILE

Cathy and Gaspare LoDuca P'24

Over the last three years, Cathy and Gaspare LoDuca P'24 have embraced the Fordham Prep community in a number of ways. The LoDucas have been a host family for a student from Dublin, Ireland's, Clongwoods College, as part of the Prep's Global Education program. Cathy serves the Mothers' Club as its Treasurer. The couple attends the Prep's Visual & Performing Arts Showcase each winter and spring in celebration of our Rams' musical and artistic talents. Sometimes, it feels as if they spend as much time at Rose Hill as their son, Gaspare '24.

When asked why they enjoy engaging with the Prep community, Gaspare said attending Prep events conjured a familiar feeling from his own high school years.

"I went to a very similar school while growing up in Michigan, so I immediately felt at home at the Prep," he shared. "As we became more engaged, we felt like the other families sat well with us," he continued. Cathy echoed that sentiment, noting, "The other Prep families share our values."

Those values and the school's mission also drive the LoDucas' desire to be involved. "Men for others — how do you not subscribe to that?" Cathy asked. "We feel connected because of the amount of support that the Prep provides and the environment they've created for students to figure out who they are and be in a safe environment while doing so," she added.

The couple's son is also discovering new interests at the Prep. He was introduced to the vibraphone by Visual & Performing Arts Department Chair Dylan LaGamma '09, which he plays in the school's Jazz Ensemble. His parents are both surprised and happy that their son, a classically trained pianist, is being challenged to explore new music and new instruments with which he had no experience before arriving at the Prep.

"One of the things that drew us here is the arts program," said Cathy when asked about the couple's decision to help fund the school's Orchestra and Jazz Ensemble. She studied music as a minor in college and her husband is also a huge proponent of the arts.

"It's all we can do to help make sure the arts keep getting cultivated," Cathy explained. "The arts is something you often see as the first to get cut when school budgets are tight. I love the fact that we could find a way to help the program in some way," she continued.

Their son has also discovered a new sport he enjoys — throwing shotput for the track and field team — which fueled their desire to also support renovations for the new Fitness & Wellness Center.

"The Prep has given my son a sport that he can positively contribute to and feel good about," Gaspare began. "He found a leadership role that he never even considered so I feel like it was incumbent on us to make sure that other students can find this path regardless of their sports expertise. It really is important to treat the whole student, not just their academic side. I felt that if the Prep needed help with the new Fitness & Wellness Center, I was more than willing to donate," he added.

As their son prepares to graduate next spring, the LoDucas are determined to make sure that they leave the Prep better than they found it. The Prep experience has opened up so many possibilities for their son, leading them to also support the IGNITE Scholarship Program.

"We would hate that a young man wouldn't have the opportunity to go to the Prep if they really wanted to, especially if they felt that it could be a place where they could grow and thrive," Cathy said, adding, "We see how much our son is truly growing into a wonderful young man; we thank the Prep for fostering an amazing environment and hope that others have the same opportunity," she concluded. ■

ANTHONY DAY'S FIRST DAY IN OFFICE

Mr. Anthony Day officially began his tenure in July 2023, shortly after the 2022–2023 fiscal year closed. He is very much looking forward to meeting members of the Prep community, donors, and friends at the President's Club Dinner, the 100th Turkey Bowl, and the Rams Union Event, among others, in the coming weeks and months.

He began the morning by sharing breakfast with colleagues on the administrative staff. The assortment of bagels and spreads were a gift from the Business Office.

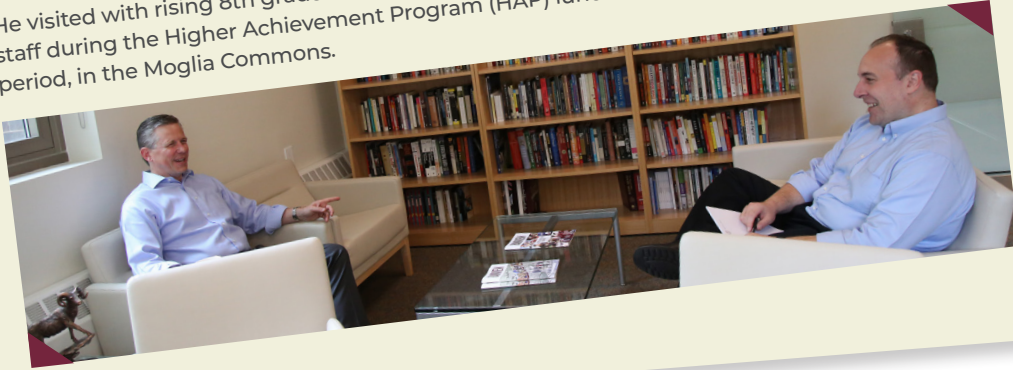

“As a leader committed to the Catholic Jesuit mission and identity of Fordham Prep, I look forward to hearing more about what excites and motivates our benefactors to support our school, students, faculty, and staff as well as to express my gratitude for their generosity,” stated Day. “I’m also excited to celebrate the 100th Turkey Bowl, a monumental rivalry that elevates and puts a spotlight on two storied Jesuit high schools. There’s a real sense of pride in having an annual competition that focuses on the importance of integrity, sportsmanship and brotherhood,” he beamed.

He visited with rising 8th graders and current Prep student staff during the Higher Achievement Program (HAP) lunch period, in the Moglia Commons.

Mr. Day's former student, Jeff Butkowski '99, Director of Technical Operations, helped him set up his computer.

The day concluded in the Principal's Office as Mr. Day sat down with Prep principal Dr. Joseph Petriello '98 for their first official meeting of the new school year.

ALUMNI BUSINESSES SUPPORTING THE PREP

We are always grateful for our sponsors who provide one-of-a-kind experiences at our events throughout the year. We are especially thrilled when Fordham Prep-run businesses support our community. Honestly, what would a Prep event be without them?

Here's to just a few of the alumni sponsors that make events like IGNITE and our annual Golf & Tennis Outing something to remember!

Wondering why there's a crowd gathering in the corner of the Moglia Commons at IGNITE? Chances are Danny Neeson '15, son of Taken star Liam Neeson P'15, is on the scene mixing delicious drinks for guests with Billy Renza '15. Neeson co-founded the award-winning De-Nada Tequila brand along with Renza and college friend Adam Millman. The De-Nada Tequila tasting table is always a huge hit at IGNITE and the Prep's Golf & Tennis Outings.

East Hampton Shucker Co., founded by John Nicholas '83, provides guests with an extra-special culinary experience at our Prep events. One of our newer event sponsors, Nicholas enjoys teaching guests the intricacies of shucking oysters for maximum enjoyment. You won't leave a Prep event unsatiated when you stop by Nicholas' oyster-shucking station!

A longtime Prep event sponsor, Aries Wine & Spirits was founded by Tony Russo '57. Notably, Aries Wine & Spirits supported the Prep's first-ever Wine Pull at IGNITE 2022, helping the assortment of wines reach over 130 bottles.

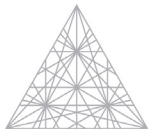

In addition to IGNITE, Russo and his wife, co-owner Andrea Kish, have generously donated wine and other spirits for tasting tables at Fordham Prep Fathers' Club events, the Golf & Tennis Outing, and more.

Thanks to all our event sponsors throughout the year. ■

FitzSimons Civics
Symposium Coordinators
Eleanor Friedman P'26
and Gillian Bennis.

Learn more about the
FitzSimons Civics
Education Initiative:
www.fordhamprep.org/fitzsimonscivics

The Prep's Librarian and Media Specialist Eleanor Friedman P'26 along with social studies teacher Gillian Bennis take on the task of coordinating one of the most anticipated events in the Prep's yearly curricula, the FitzSimons Civics Symposium.

The event is part of the greater Civics Education Initiative, funded by Dennis FitzSimons '67 and his wife, Ann. The initiative aims to cultivate an understanding and appreciation for the US system of government, a recognition of the importance of free speech and respect for multiple points of view, and to learn the skills necessary to successfully navigate today's digital news and information ecosystem.

Each spring, the symposium brings two panelists and one moderator to the Prep's Leonard Theatre to discuss relevant topics in social studies in front of an audience of juniors and seniors. For the inaugural event in 2022, Georgetown law professor Anupam Chander and Yale law professor Amy Kapczynski sat on the panel with moderator Nikolas Guggenberger (research scholar and lecturer at Yale) to discuss the merits of social media.

Friedman was the sole coordinator in that inaugural year. She led six Prep students on the Symposium Committee as they spent countless hours helping her plan the symposium through meetings, planning the pre-event film screening of The Social Dilemma, and more.

Friedman was impressed with the students' hard work and leadership skills. "The day of the Symposium was like any big event," she said, recalling the inaugural symposium. "Ensuring that all the pieces we planned seamlessly came together requires intense teamwork. Our student committee demonstrated incredible leadership growth from start to finish," she added.

When Bennis joined the faculty in September 2022, she was thrilled at the prospect of helping Friedman with this year's symposium. The event focused on the Supreme Court and its handling of both the Second Amendment and affirmative action cases. Nick Ohnell Fellow and head of research for the Policing and Public Safety Initiative Rafael Mangual and president emeritus of New York University John Sexton sat on the panel, moderated by David Hiller, former president of the McCormick Foundation.

Student proactivity and involvement in the symposium planning process stood out to Bennis immediately. "When [the students] would see that we had an assembly on the calendar or as the symposium was getting closer, they were always looking forward to meetings and were always so willing to participate and be involved in the planning. It's such a hands-on experience," Bennis noted.

All members of the faculty and staff, along with Friedman and Bennis, are delighted to create civics programming that is impactful and engaging for the Prep's junior and senior classes. Their tireless efforts are integral to the Jesuit mission of educating students to become informed and engaged citizens committed to the common good.

Both Friedman and Bennis are excited to take on a new topic for the 3rd Annual FitzSimons Civics Symposium, scheduled for Tuesday, March 26th, 2024. ■

SHEA-MCDONOUGH LEGACY SOCIETY

Rev. Arthur V. Shea, SJ

Harry L. McDonough

Since it was established in 1984 and renamed the Shea-McDonough Legacy Society in 2019, we have welcomed and recognized alumni, parents, friends and other benefactors, who have invested in the Prep as they have their own families. Their gifts — both modest and large — have played a critical role in advancing Fordham Prep’s mission to educate young men in faith, scholarship and service to become “men for others.”

Named in honor of longtime Prep faculty members and revered teachers Rev. Arthur V. Shea, SJ and Harry L. McDonough, membership in the Society ensures that your legacy includes a meaningful contribution toward Fordham Prep’s long-term stability. All donors who inform us that the Prep is part of their estate plans, which may include a bequest and/or charitable income gifts, become members of the Shea-McDonough Legacy Society.

For more information, please contact our Director of Development & Engagement, Suzanne Dowden, at downdens@fordhamprep.org or 718.367.7500 ext. 274.

FORDHAM PREP'S INAUGURAL VOLUNTEER-OF-THE-YEAR AWARD

The Value of Time
When it comes to examples of men for others, the late Len DeLucia, DDS P'09 is one of the members of the Prep community that instantly comes to mind.

He served as varsity lacrosse coach for five years after his son, James '09, graduated the Prep and is credited with helping to start the Lacrosse Hall of Fame & Fundraiser Dinner as well as the Top Corner Club. Len's commitment to athletics didn't stop there — he was also a chairman of the Golf Outing committee, ensuring that the school's annual Golf & Tennis Outing went smoothly. He devoted his spare time to the Prep selflessly, volunteering in many capacities while also juggling his career as a successful dentist in Westchester.

While we lost Len tragically in 2022, his legacy lives on at the Prep. This past school year, the lacrosse team declared April 2nd “Len DeLucia P'09 Day,” which fell during the weekend of the inaugural Jesuit Lacrosse Classic tournament. The team remembered

The inaugural Len DeLucia Volunteer of the Year Award was presented to the DeLucia family during the 28th Annual Golf & Tennis Outing on June 20th at Quaker Ridge Golf Club. That evening, the event was officially renamed the Fordham Prep Len DeLucia Golf & Tennis Outing in honor of its former chairman.

The outing supported the Prep's Annual Scholarship Fund and the new Len DeLucia P'09 Fund for Athletics, part of which will fund renovations to the Prep's new Fitness & Wellness Center, slated to open in the fall of 2023. ■

TRIP TO VIVA HOUSE BALTIMORE INSPIRES 2023 SENIOR CLASS GIFT

Each year, the Prep’s graduating class collaborates with the Development Office to raise money for a Senior Class Gift. The Class of 2023, inspired by a life spent in the service of others, supported the Brendan Walsh ’60 Hunger Awareness Fund. The fund, named after Hall of Honor member Brendan Walsh ’60, supports a broad array of hunger awareness initiatives at the Prep including the annual Great Ignatian Challenge (GIC) competition. The fund was established by friends and classmates at Walsh’s Hall of Honor induction in November 2022.

In March, members of the class of 2023 journeyed to Baltimore, Maryland, to visit Viva House, a food bank started by Walsh and his wife Willa, to donate non-perishables collected during the 7th Annual Great Ignatian Challenge. Little did they know that this trip would inspire their Senior Class Gift, as announced officially by the Senior Class Gift Committee and Student Government a month later.

“The service trip to Baltimore was easily one of the most meaningful experiences of my life,” Jackson Dellafiore ’23 remembered. “Upon our arrival, we unloaded hundreds of pounds of food, and Mr. Walsh explained the history and mission of Viva House to our group. We hit the ground running, assembled grab-and-go bags of non-perishables, and helped cook hot meals for locals stopping by Viva House to collect their weekly bag. It was incredibly valuable and inspirational working alongside the other volunteers, and hearing their stories,” he continued.

The visit further ignited the students’ compassion and desire to be men for others. “I was really inspired by the work that they were doing [at Viva House]. Just the sheer compassion they had for people in need really inspired me to be more like Mr. Walsh,” stated Marti Distura ’23.

The benefits of the Brendan Walsh ’60 Hunger Awareness Fund are two-fold. For one, it helps the Prep support its local partners with more food donations. This, in turn, helps the Prep place higher in the annual Great Ignatian Challenge competition, winning more scholarship funding for the school.

The class of 2023’s efforts raised over $7,500 for the Prep’s hunger awareness initiatives. ■
