DEPARTMENT Visual and Performing Arts

COURSE Portfolio Development: Studio Art

Time Frame	Week 1-4
Topic
Introduction & Foundations
Alignment to Standards
1.5.12adv.Cr1b: Choose from a range of materials and methods of traditional and contemporary artistic practices, following or breaking established conventions, to plan the making of multiple works of art and design based on a theme, idea or concept. 1.5.12adv.Cr3a: Reflect on, re-engage, revise and refine works of art or design considering relevant traditional and contemporary criteria as well as personal artistic vision. 1.5.12adv.Re7a: Analyze how responses to art develop over time based on knowledge of and experience with art and life. 1.5.12adv.Re9a: Construct evaluations of a work of art or collection of works based on differing sets of criteria.
Learning Objectives and Activities
SWBAT answer the following questions: • What conditions, attitudes, and behaviors support creativity and innovative thinking? • How do artists and designers create works of art or design that effectively communicate? • How does the period in history, one's culture and one's experiences influence artwork? • What role does persistence play in revising, refining and developing work? SWBAT demonstrate understanding of the following: • The elements of art (line, shape/form, color, texture, value, space/perspective) and the principles of design (Pattern, Rhythm/Movement, Proportion/Scale, Balance, Unity, and Emphasis) are the capacity for individual expression and cultural reflection. • Creativity and innovative thinking are essential life skills that can be developed through artistic investigations, experimentation, exploration of design and sustained artmaking practices. • The creative process requires learning productive strategies for meeting challenges. • Students will use mixed media, techniques, and processes to understand and apply visual elements and principles. • Students will respond to works of art through analysis and interpretation. • Students will continuously examine, assess, and improve work.

DEPARTMENT Visual and Performing Arts

COURSE Portfolio Development: Studio Art

Learning Activities:

- Engage in artist/teacher-directed and self-directed identification and exploration of media skills and techniques to accomplish a variety of 2D design solutions.
- Develop the appearance of 3D structures and settings on 2D surfaces through effective use of spatial devices such as: value and shading, one and two-point linear perspective, atmospheric perspective, size and vertical location, and overlapping.
- Employ color schemes (e.g. Complementary, Analogous, Monochromatic, Triadic, etc.) to convey symbolic, emotional, thematic, and/or spatial significance in a work of art.
- Discussion of exemplar artworks in terms of: meaning, subject matter, cultural connections, functions/purpose, perceived meaning and symbolism.
- Viewing activities with corresponding guided, open reflection and responding activities.
- Students will develop clear, imaginative and coherent artistic intention, demonstrate a range and depth of creative-thinking behaviors, demonstrate the exploration of ideas to shape artistic intent through to a point of realization.
- Students will use mixed media, techniques, and processes to understand and apply visual elements and principles.
- Students will utilize a variety of online research tools and resources to inform their process.
- Students will respond to works of art through analysis and interpretation.
- Students will continuously examine, assess, and improve work.

Assessments

Formative:

- Participation in group discussion/activities
- Oral and written in-progress critiques

Summative:

- Artmaking final product assessed with rubric
- Final critique
- Physical and digital portfolio: Culminating assessment of final physical/digital portfolio of unit requirements are conducted at the end of a unit to determine degree of mastery or proficiency according to identified achievement target.

Benchmark:

- Students will create a presentation of their prior art experience and goals as an artist
- Written Critique assessment

Interdisciplinary Connections

Written critique and reflection:

W.WR.9-10.5 Conduct short as well as more sustained research projects to answer a question (including a self-generated question) or solve a problem; narrow or broaden the inquiry when appropriate; synthesize multiple sources on the subject, demonstrating understanding of the subject under investigation.

Career Readiness, Life Literacies, and Key Skills

9.3.12.AR-VIS.2 Analyze how the application of visual arts elements and principles of design communicate and express ideas.

9.4.12.CI.1: Demonstrate the ability to reflect, analyze, and use creative skills and ideas (e.g., 1.1.12prof.CR3a).

9.3.12.AR-VIS.3 Analyze and create two and three-dimensional visual art forms using various media.

Technology Integration

Students will select and evaluate the media platform which best suits their project needs.

9.4.12.IML.2: Evaluate digital sources for timeliness, accuracy, perspective, credibility of the source, and relevance of information, in media, data, or other resources.

Students will use Google Classroom to collaborate, work towards solving authentic problems, or participate in an online classroom discussion utilizing pre-learned etiquette about blended learning platforms.

9.4.12.TL.4: Collaborate in online learning communities or social networks or virtual worlds to analyze and propose a resolution to a real-world problem.

Career Education

CRP2. Apply appropriate academic and technical skills.

CRP4. Communicate clearly and effectively and with reason.

CRP12. Work productively in teams while using cultural global competence.

Learning Objectives and Activities

SWBAT answer the following questions:

- What is a portfolio, and why is it important in an artist's practice?
- What cultural, historical, and environmental factors influence and shape an artist's point of view?
- What is my point of view as an artist?
- What Elements and Principles of Art are most important to me to express my artistic vision to the viewer?
- What is a concentration?
- What does it mean to show breadth in a portfolio?

SWBAT demonstrate understanding of the following:

- Point of view is shaped by an artist's experiences, knowledge, and perception of the world.
- A portfolio can tell a narrative of an artist's skills and point of view.
- A portfolio can function as a tool for both personal reflection and professional promotion.
- A concentration is a cohesive body of work based on a central theme or idea.
- Breadth in a portfolio showcases a range of skills and approaches.

Learning Activities:

- Discussions & analysis of example AP Portfolios including a range of subject matter, cultural connections, functions/purpose, perceived meaning and symbolism.
- Students will select and develop an area of concentration to be used as a means of self expression and investigation.
- Students will design and present a proposal for their concentrations, including: an analysis of specific artist exemplars related to their idea and any questions for their peers (inviting feedback to help them begin investigating their concentration).
- Students will select and apply media, techniques, technology and processes appropriate to their concentration

ELL:

- Work toward longer passages as skills in English increase
- Use visuals
- Introduce key vocabulary before lesson
- Teacher models reading aloud daily
- Provide peer tutoring
- Use of Bilingual Dictionary
- Guided notes and/or scaffold outline for written assignments
- Provide students with English Learner leveled readers.

Supports for Students With IEPs:

- Allow extra time to complete assignments or tests
- Guided notes and/or scaffold outline for written assignments
- Work in a small group
- Allow answers to be given orally or dictated
- Use large print books, Braille, or books on CD (digital text)
