Monday, 9/8 - Luke 7:1-35

The contrast between Simon's reaction versus Jesus' reaction to the woman is drastic. What should we learn about grace and forgiveness from Jesus' acceptance of the sinful woman anointing his feet?

Wednesday, 9/10 - Luke 8:1-25
Jesus tells a story about a farmer and some seed. Some of the seeds he scattered died and withered away. Some of the seed grew and grew! Jesus told this story to explain what happens when people hear the gospel. Some people believe the gospel and others do not. Jesus says that those with an "honest and good heart" will believe God's word and grow in their faith. What do you think it means to have an "honest and good heart?"

Tuesday, 9/16 - Luke 10
In one parable this chapter, Jesus tells the story of a man who is helped by an unlikely friend. It was surprising that a Samaritan would help this man because Jews and Samaritans did not like each other. God calls us to love our neighbor as we love ourself. Who is your neighbor?

We have an enormous privilege as the children of God- we can pray to the God of all creation and He hears us! Not only does He hear us when we pray, He also loves us and answers our prayers. Yesterday, we read Jesus' words telling us not to fear. Today, He continues that idea by telling us not to worry about our daily needs. We have a Heavenly Father who is good and knows what we need. Instead of worrying about our daily needs, Jesus tells us to "store up treasures in heaven"? What treasures in heaven wait for you?

Monday, 9/22 - Luke 13
In verses 18-30, Jesus teaches that there will be people who think they will spend eternal life in heaven, but they will not. What are some reasons people think they will get to go to heaven when they die? What is the true way to know we will go to heaven to spend eternity with God?

Monday, 9/29 - Luke 18
At the beginning of chapter 18 we see three examples of how Jesus wants us to come to him: persistently, in humility, and being full of childlike faith. Which of these postures is the most difficult for you? Pray and ask God to help you be more persistent, humble, and childlike in your prayer.
