CLASS HISTORY

Twelve years ago the class of 1950 walked through the doors of various schools to begin their education. Nary a one of the graduating class began their first year in good ole Wall. Ione Platt was the first to come to Wall. She hailed from Cottonwood and entered the fifth grade. Joanne Humphrey joined in the sixth grade. Gale Todd and Joe Lytle appeared in Junior High in their seventh year, and Jack Evans and Norris Wyant joined us in their eighth year.

We began our freshman year with seventeen students, many of them coming from the country. They included Boyce Coleman, from Wasta, Gordon Babcock, Lenard Harnisch, Duane Patterson, Cecilia Melvin, Vernita Hocking, Michaela Bielmaier, Mary Shull, and Dorothy Kitterman. We recovered from initiation as only "green freshmen" can, to enjoy a full year of parties, games, etc. Dorothy Kitterman was Carnival Queen this year.

To start our Sophie year, Marianne Pierce no longer was with us. Joe and Tom Foley joined us from Rapid City. Miss Norma Gerken was our Class Advisor. Boyce Coleman left us to join the class of '49. The boys took an active part in all sports and both boys and girls took part in Glee Club.

Our Junior year started with an enrollment of seventeen. Our class took the Carnival honors, with Mary Shull as Queen, and Gale Todd as King. Toward the end of the first semester Jack Evans left us for California and Elaine Bielmaier quit. Shortly after the first of the year, Joy Land joined us from Wasta. We entertained the Seniors at a formal banquet at the Miller Cafe, carrying out the '49er Gold Rush theme, and we also entertained them at a prom at the Community Hut.

To start their 12th year of education, the Seniors had an enrollment about the same as in the Junior year, with the exception of Tom Foley. The Seniors were very active in sports and did a good job of initiating the new "Freshies".

All in all, everyone has had a good time, and regrets passing from these great halls of knowledge.

We wish to thank our parents for providing us with an opportunity to become high school graduates, and our teachers for their patience, thoughtfulness, and consideration--through which we received our basic education.

CLASS PROPHECY

It was nearly ten years ago today that I joined the Waves, shortly after graduating from WHS. Upon disembarking at San Francisco, my girlfriend and I decided to take in a stagershow. Not knowing what stagershow were playing, we decided to take a drive. Then, suddenly, bright lights flashed on revealing---not Errol Flynn but Joe Foley! After enjoying the show, we went back to talk to Joe and found that he had gained so much talent in the Senior play practice for the play "Mountain Justice", that he had gone right on to success. Night clubs were next for us---to celebrate!! I told Joe that I was going to look up the Class of '50 and he said several of its members were on the coast. Maybe I'm in luck!!

Upon entering the night club, "The Swanky Swan", we were received graciously, thinking it was Joe's prestige, that brought this about. We found, however, that it was one of our old classmates who was the owner, none other than Lenard Harnisch! He entertained many celebrities but still could not make too much of a fortune because the government was taking so much money in Income Tax. After listening to his troubles and triumphs, my girlfriend and I learned of a very exclusive hotel, far surpassing the Waldorf.

Joe took us to the door of the hotel in his limousine. What a sight we beheld! I was nearly bowled over at the name appearing on the roof. One would never guess--it was the Hotel Wyant!! Owned by Carolyn and Norris Wyant. After chatting with the Wyants and their children, we went to our room and slept on the heavenly "Air Foam Mattresses". On arising the following morning, we sent down an order for our breakfast. The service was very speedy. When we opened the door, a cocky little fellow greeted us, with his smart remarks. I knew it must be Gordon Babcock, whom it was. He looked very sharp in his bell-hop uniform. He told me that Dorothy Kitterman had stayed here recently and had gone on to Miami, Florida, and was now the wife of Herb Slovek.

Dorothy was next on my list so I was soon Miami bound, but my friend declined my invitation to join me so I had to go alone. I found Dorothy looking wonderful, and she said she and Herb had done very well on the ranch, enabling them to have such a grand vacation. I had a gay chat and she decided to accompany me on my trip.

Dorothy knew that Vernita Hocking now owned a Dude Ranch in Texas. We chartered a plane to fly from Miami to Texas. We were just leaving when the stewardess came down the aisle, and had it not been that we were both fastened in, we would have fallen out, for she was our old classmate, Mary Shull. She made a charming hostess and was well liked by all the travelers. She told us one of the "gents" took trips constantly. She told us later that it was Richard Deutcher. It seemed he had matrimonial ideas, but she didn't!

We, very easily found Vernita and she was entertaining the "would be" cowgirls and cowboys graciously. She also took us in hand and in a few days, she had us riding with the others. She said she liked her work very much and wouldn't give it up for the world. She had made good money and was going to expand the place. We took in a football game that afternoon, as Vernita said Gale Todd would be playing, as a professional, of course. Gale was very quick-moving and just as good a player as he had been in his high school days for WHS. We were unable to hold too long a conversation with him, but found that he and Joe Lytle had started playing together. Joe had quit as he had received a head injury one day. He didn't know where we could find Joe, but imagined in some quiet place as he was now a poet and a novelist. Gale's coach came and told Gale that they had to go back to New York. Gale asked us to accompany them back to New York so we accepted his invitation after bidding Vernita a hasty adieu.

Upon arriving in New York City, we noticed all the windows advertising -- "Patterson's Latest Dress Designs and the Model Erma". These names sounded familiar so we went to the offices of this great firm. We were right, they were familiar. It was Duane Patterson and his wife, Erma, the ex-Erma Harwood. He had gone to school in Paris and concocted some of the most daring, delightful, and fantastic frocks anyone had ever beheld! He had lost track of all of his schoolmates and was very happy with the news we had to tell him. He said the whole of New York City was in an upheaval over the latest books that had been hitting the public like mad. No one knew the author--his pen name was "Sir Joe". We left Duane pondering over who it could be.

After what Gale had told us about Joe, Dorothy and I had an idea that it might be Joe Lytle so we were going to look him up. After looking in vain for two days, we finally got a lead. We found him in a little cottage several miles from the city. He said his head had healed beautifully but he could no longer take the roughness of football. He used the pen name "Sir Joe" as he was afraid his books would not sell at all if people knew he had once been in football. We told him that we would keep his secret for him and departed as he seemed to be lost in his own world!

Before we left New York City, for places unknown, we had to go to the theatre, which we did, but as we were about to enter, we noticed everyone moving to one side of the walk to let a much jeweled and ermine wrapped lady pass. To our amazement, she called to us and we were stunned to find that it was Joy Stone, the former Joy Land. Poor Warren had struck a very rich oil bed and now that he had died an untimely death, Joy was a multimillionaire. She invited us to sit in her box at the show. She was tired of men so was unescorted this night. She told us that she had heard from Cecilia Melvin who was now teaching in one of Denver's most exclusive girls' schools. When we expressed our desire to see

Cecilia, Joy offered to drive us there in her new bright red Super-sonic, jet propelled car, the first one to be sent to the United States from Great Britian.

Our trip to Denver was uneventful. We went to a fashionable suburb and found the school in which Cecilia was teaching. She was known there as Madame Melvin. She was teaching grooming and social etiquette. After a long visit, we left her to her toils and went to the Opera House where Cecilia had told us Ione Flatt was singing. She was on tour with the Metropolitan Opera. After the Opera, we went backstage to see Ione. Her maid was busily brushing her hair, while another was pressing her clothes. She was delighted to see us and told us that this was her last night for some time as she was going to return to Wall for a short vacation. Dorothy said it was nearly time for her to go back to the ranch also. Joy and I wanted to visit with old friends so we started for South Dakota.

As we were leaving the metropolis of Denver, with Joy at the wheel, we suddenly spotted a mouse on the road. Joy swung the wheel to avert it, and crashed head long into a telephone pole. A crowd arrived and someone called an ambulance. Imagine our surprise when we came to in an ambulance to see our old friend, Michaela Bielmaier who was now a nurse and working in one of the hospitals in Denver.

We found her to be a very efficient nurse, as she bandaged and soothed us. We were in the hospital three days, at the end of which time, we had asked Michaela to return to Wall with us as she too, wanted to visit with her parents and her married sisters who were all living near Wall.

We got to Wall safely, and found all our old friends and relatives well.

We gradually drifted apart, Ione was the first to leave to return to her Opera singing. Michaela returned to Denver to resume her nursing duties. Dorothy went back to the farm and Herb, and Joy went back to New York City. As my leave was about up, I returned to San Fransisco to report for duty.

Last Will and Testament

In the name of God, Amen, we the Senior Class of 1950, of Wall High School, in the County of Pennington, and the State of South Dakota being of sound mind and memory, and considering the uncertainty of our frail and transitory life do therefore make, ordain, publish, and declare this to be our last Will and Testament.

First, we order and direct that our executors hereinafter named, pay all our just debts and funeral expenses as soon after our decease as conveniently may be.

Second, after the payment of such funeral expenses and debts, we give, devise, and bequeath the following from the bottom of our large hearts:

ITEM ONE:

We do hereby plead not guilty to any and all charges of personal malice, ill feeling or resentment. To the faculty, we extend our appreciation for knowledge gained. To Mr. Phillips, our beloved principal, we give thanks for all permits, both excused and otherwise. To the Juniors, we bequeath our seats in the assembly, together with all of our privileges; To the Sophs, best wishes for success during the remaining days in WHS; To the Freshmen, our spirit also all pencil stubs, notebooks, locker keys, etc. not removed by us in our hasty departure.

ITEM TWO:

From the deepest recesses of our souls, the following have bequeathed these cherished gifts to their heirs:

GORDON BABCOCK wills: - his butch haircut to Galen Meirose and hopes he makes good use of it.

- his smart remarks to Willy Eisenbraun providing Willy adds a few each year.

- his ability to date Jean Alishouse, to Larry Lytle since he will be close by.

DOROTHY KITTERMAN wills - her ability to go with a certain Philip boy to Donna Ivins and hopes she has good luck.

- her ability to be a cheerleader to Shirley Babcock.

- her long hair to Jean Van and hopes she will let hers grow----Just Once!!

JOE LYTTLE wills: - his height to Gladwin Paulsen which will enable him to play better basketball.

- his ability to play basketball to Bobby Bielmaier and he hopes that he will make the "first five"----someday.

- his ability to get unexcused absences to his brother, Larry, (He will need them, if he follows Joe's example.)

JOANNE HUMPHREY wills: - her Irish temper to Lois Kellem.

- her ability to play the Sax. to Ramona Logan and hopes she practices at least as often as Joanne did.

- her ability to get along with Mr. Werle to Delphia Bielmaier as long as Del will be here next year.

- LENARD HARNISCH wills: - his lost memory to Mr. Werle and
 - hopes it benefits him as much as it did Lenard.
 - his ability to tell stories to Darlene Hocking, providing she can add a few to his collection.
 - his dark, wavy hair to Red Moore, and maybethis will enable Red to date more girls.
- MARY SHULL wills: - her ability to go steady to Lydia Huffman.
 - her ability to drive the "Ford" to Jean Van, since Jean will still be around to go to the dances.
 - her ability not to skip, be late, or be absent, to Willy E.
- DUANE PATTERSON wills: - his reckless driving to Glenn, in the hopes that Glenn is still young enough to improve.
 - his ability to go to Elm Springs in muddy weather to Ida Eisenbraun, since he isn't interested anymore.
 - his reddish-blond hair, with sincerity, to Mr. Whiteface
- MICHAELA BIELMAIER wills: - her glasses to Alice Harnisch, so Alice can get a better look at the opposite side.
 - her big feet to Evonne LaRoche, so that she can get places!
 - her height to Dorothy Heuther, so she doesn't have such a time finding a boyfriend her height.
- JOE FOLEY wills: - his ability to drive a new Chevy to Bobby Bielmaier.
 - his ranching days to Billy Peterson, with the hope that Bill will try his luck-----someday.
 - his one and only haircut, to Mr. Phillips.
- VERNITA HOCKING wills: - her ability to yodel to Donna Ivins who is to practice two hours each day.
 - her ability to drive, to her sister, Darlene, since she will have to come to WHS anyway.
 - her seat behind Glenn Alishouse to Betty Pipal.
- NORRIS WYANT wills: - his ability to go steady with Carolyn to Ronald, and he hopes Ronnie makes good use of this.
 - his one and only -- mighty brain, to Norma Sorensen.
 - his curly hair to Tommy Bourne, so he won't have to waste good money on Toni's.
- JOY LAND wills: - her ability to go with Warren, to Betty Pipal, and hopes Betty has better luck with future dates.
 - her days in Philip and Midland to Jean Van, and she knows that Jean can make good use of them.
 - her ability as a soda-jerk to Billy Peterson.
- GALE TODD wills: - his ability to gain wealth through penny-ante to Alfred Paulsen, and he hopes he has better luck.
 - his ability to go with Donna anytime he pleases, to Willy Eisenbraun, as long as Willy is a close neighbor.
 - his small ears to Bobby B. with the hope that Bobby's will shrink a bit.
- CECILIA MELVIN wills: - her country-girl ways to Shirley Briley.
 - her quietness to Patty Clark, and hopes she uses it.
- IONE FLATT wills: - her ability to drive her brother's car to Norma Sorensen, and hopes she gets it more from now on.
 - her seat in the second row for four years to Patsy Cusick since Pat hasn't made that row yet.
 - her ability to whistle, to Ida Eisenbraun, so she will be able to whistle at the boys.

JUNIORS

Our class advisor is Miss Huntley. She directed our play "Don't Be Bashful," which was held on December 2 and 3.

Our class officers are: President Wilhelm Eisenbraun Vice President Alfred Paulsen, Secretary and Treasurer, Glenn Alishouse. For our representatives to the Student Council we chose Esther Bielmaier and Alfred Paulsen. Glenn Alishouse was chosen as Vice President of the Student Council from the student body. Our candidates for carnival king and queen were: Lydia Huffman and Glenn Alishouse.

Dennis Foster left us at the beginning of the second semester.

We entertained the Seniors at a banquet and prom held at the Alex Johnson Hotel on April 22.

SOPHOMORES

 BOTTOM ROW: Gail Miller, Betty Pipal, Norma Sorensen, LeRoy Wyant.

For our class officers, we chose, Jean Alishouse for President, Betty Pipal for Vice President, and Shirley Babcock for Secretary and Treasurer. Betty Pipal and Bob Bielmaier represented our class in the Student Council this year. Our candidates for carnival king and queen were: Bob Bielmaier and Delphia Bielmaier.

Mr. Phillips is our class advisor. The Sophomore Class took first place in the magazine campaign.

FRESHMEN

 SECOND ROW: Wayne Moore, Laura Muller, Gladwin Paulsen, Billy Peterson, and Luella Predoehl.

We were shy little Freshmen when we first walked through the doors of WHS, but we have changed since then.

We elected Billy Peterson as President, Lois Predoehl as Vice President, Gail Welsh, Secretary, and Laura Muller as Treasurer. Billy and Gail were elected to represent our class in the Student Council.

The first event of the year was our initiation, when we really got "the works". We were all decked out in shorts and midriffs for the boys, and swimming suits and chaps for the girls. It was fun, we have to admit that, and wasn't as bad as we thought it would be.

Mr. Whiteface is our Class Advisor. We were second in the magazine campaign that was sponsored to buy curtains for the gym.

BASKETBALL 1949-50

The 1949-1950 basketball season started for the Eagles when they began practice during the first part of November. Although last year's squad was weakened by graduation, the Eagles looked forward to a successful season. However, with nine lettermen returning, a good nucleus was present to build around, even though most of the boys were lacking in experience. The two veterans returning were, J. Lytle and G. Todd while A. Paulsen, G. Babcock, L. Lytle, G. Alishouse, R. Connolly, and N. Wyant had lettered, but had not had much previous experience. These lettermen, with five freshmen, B. Peterson, G. Paulsen, G. Welsh, and D. Lewis, formed an encouraging group with which to work.

Although the Eagles didn't reach the goal for which they worked so hard all season, we believe that this was a very successful year, and we hope that next year is as successful. The team which provided the greatest opposition during the 1949-50 season, was Kadoka, the District Champions, who beat the Eagles out of the Championship in the district by a score of 43 to 57. However, the Eagles missed winning the Badlands Conference, and were in second place, behind Kadoka. A total of 28 games were played in all, the Eagles winning 20, and losing 8.

The Eagles outscored their opponents, 1,345 to 1,009, averaging slightly over 48 points per game.

Center, Joe Lytle led his team-mates in scoring by racking up 497 points with a game average of 17.7 points. Next in scoring was forward, A. Paulsen, with 278 points, and a game average of 10 points per game. Next was L. Lytle, with 136 points; G. Todd with 124 points; and G. Babcock with a total of 108 points.

The second team was not so successful against their opponents. They lost two out of three games they played.

The four graduating lettermen took a trip with the coach to the State Tournament at Aberdeen. Also an All-Star game was held at Wall, with all Senior lettermen from different schools taking part in it.

FOOTBALL 1949-50

Seven lettermen were on hand for opening drills in six-man football, with five other boys who were anxious to help these lettermen to improve over their last year's record. One of the five boys who helped fill out the squad was Glenn Alishouse, a transfer from Colorado.

Most of the first team had one or more years of experience and were of medium size and weight. Despite their experience, weight, and size, the Eagles were the victims of the first game of the season, losing to Hill City 32-13. The following week, the Eagles' experience and manpower proved to be of use as they won over Quinn by a score of 55-0. Continuing the winning streak, the eagles traveled to Midland, and racked up another victory by defeating them 12-4, despite the muddy field. The Eagles looked forward to the next game, hoping they might gain a victory over the strong Kadoka Kougars, and win the league, but were defeated by a score of 65-8. In a return meeting with Quinn on a muddy field, Quinn was defeated 49-0. The last game, to end the season was a hard played one, with New Underwood losing to the Eagles 44-13.

Scoring for the year was pretty well divided among the team mates, with halfbacks Todd, Babcock, Peterson, Bourne, A. Paulsen, and N. Wyant all doing a fine job carrying the ball and defending their goal. The three ends, J. Lytle, Alishouse, and Connolly did their share by catching the passes thrown to them by Todd, Babcock, and Peterson. L. Wyant, G. Paulsen, and Lewis filled out the squad who completed the season and have high hopes for next year.

During the season, the Eagles lost Bourne, who broke his leg, and G. Paulsen, who broke his shoulder bone. Lost from the team by graduation will be: Babcock, J. Lytle, Todd, and N. Wyant.

JANITOR

We must remember our janitor, who so faithfully coaxed the furnace all winter, pounded on the roof so that we wouldn't get soaked, and cleaned up after all of us. He greeted you with a cheery "good morning", and it seemed that nothing was ever wrong with "Bill".

Want some soap, a broom, or even a socket? The first question is "Where's Bill?" He would always help us, regardless of what he was doing and without a grumbling word.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The officers chosen for the Student Council this year were:

President-----Gordon Babcock
Vice President-Glenn Alishouse

Secretary-Ione Flatt
Treasurer-Dorothy Kitterman

Freshmen Representatives-
Bill Peterson
Gail Welsh

Sophomore Representatives-
Betty Pipal
Bob Bielmaier

Junior Representatives-
Esther Bielmaier
Alfred Paulsen

Senior Representatives-
Michaela Bielmaier
Norris Wyant

Some of the things the Student Council has accomplished this year are:

We purchased a popcorn machine, opera records, and a library of one hundred play books. We also purchased Christmas trees for two of the grade rooms and one for the assembly, and sacked candy to be distributed among high school students.

We sponsored a magazine drive to buy new stage curtains, and we also sponsored the Huron College singers. We elected several committees, including the annual Staff,

BAND

This year the band was organized under the direction of Mr. Whiteface with fourteen old members and nine new members. The Band has played for most of the home basketball games this year, and they also played for the four-team tournament, which was held here on February third. They played February 6 for the annual R. E. A. meeting by playing several pieces for entertainment.

Not pictured are Dorothy Heuther, Lois Kellem, Alice Harnisch, Delphia Bielmaier, and Laura Muller, who enrolled in the second semester class.

GIRL'S ATHLETICS

G. A. A. was organized this year, at the beginning of the second semester, by Mr. Werle. All the girls were required to take it unless they had a written statement from the doctor, saying that they were physically unfit.

After teaching a few exercises to the girls, to limber them up, Mr. Werle has taught them to play badminton, volley ball, and basketball.

A period has been assigned to the girls, so that each week, they may go down and play badminton, in groups of four

JUNIOR PLAY

On the second and third of December, 1949, the Junior Class presented the three-act comedy, "Don't Be Bashful!". The scene of the play was a summer resort where Nancy Adams, (Donna Ivins), turned the place into complete chaos, trying to get Ken Hunt, (Alfred Paulsen), to notice her. After going through many entertaining predicaments, she finally succeeded in winning Ken.

Those in the cast were:

- Donna Ivins -- Nancy Adams, the cause of it all.
 - Tom Bourne -- Walter Adams, Nancy's father.
 - Esther Bielmaier -- Grace Adams, Nancy's mother.
 - Alfred Paulsen -- Ken Hunt, a college student and a friend of the Adams family.
 - Glenn Alishouse -- Sam Hunt, Ken's father.
 - Patty Clark -- Judy Hunt, Ken's sister.
 - Dennis Foster -- Larry Marshall, a man who takes a new job.
 - Ida Eisenbraun -- Phyllis Burke, a reporter looking for a story.
 - Lydia Huffman -- Frances Terry, an attractive secretary.
 - Jean Van -- Caroline Green, an advocate of order.
 - Galen Meirose -- Officer Pluck, Pine Lake's police force.
- The play was well received both nights by large crowds, and it was rated the "best" play to have been given in quite a few years.
