1962 Senior Class Prophecy

While cruising in the Mediterranean, Margie and I began reminiscing about our high school days at Wall High. We really had to laugh at some of the memories. Marg and her husband, Jerry, both graduated from SDSC and became millionaires by developing a new breed of cattle. As a hobby Marg writes English books.

After graduating from Valparaiso University, I opened my Psychiatric office in Los Angeles, and later married one of my patients, a millionaire in diamonds, who had been suffering from a feeling of insecurity. As a hobby I own "Joan's Poodle Shop."

We began to wonder what had happened to the other '62 graduates of WHS with those fabulous dreams. Since our husbands had gone to get repairs for our damaged Yacht and the time was passing so slowly we decided to make some phone calls and find out just what had happened to those great Seniors of the Class of 1962.

A phone call to Wall, found Merlin Crown married to his high school sweetheart, Barbara, and the owner of the 48 lane bowling alley along with his own oil company. They are the proud parents of 12 children.

We just couldn't forget Bashful Bud, but he must have finally quit blushing, because he and a former classmate, Virginia Burmeister are married and living in New York. Ginger models bathing suits and Danny produces HUCKLEBERRY HOUND TV shows.

Then there was Eddie Eisenbraun. Upon graduation from WHS, Eddie returned to his father's ranch and they struck oil. His father retired and Eddie counts oil wells in his spare time and raises chickens as a hobby. His wife, Donna Mason, went to business school after graduation and now manages her husband's oil business. As a hobby she raises miniature Bulldogs.

Sandra Sether went to school in Denver and a talent scout spotted her singing at a party one night and gave her a big break. She is now making hit records, but is planning on retiring soon to the full time job of housekeeping for her husband, Jerry.

Doug Estes went to college at DWU but decided to quit and try making records. After a long struggle he got a break and appeared on the "Ed Sullivan Show." He now records for Dot Records under the name of "Doug and the Goof-offs," he is not married and is known as a man about town in New York.

We learned Barbara Eisenbruan had married her High School secret crush, Johnny, and they now live in New Mexico on a forty-thousand acre ranch. They have two children and four monkeys.

Barb told us Iola Eisenbruan had graduated from business school in Denver and is now a career girl living on Sunset Strip. She is executive secretary to Harold Foell, who owns and manufactures "Haps Beer," he also has controlling interest in an aspirin factory. Harold is married and the proud father of 11 children. Harold believes they are cheaper by the dozen.

A phone call to New York Madison Square Gardens found Jim Babcock competing for the World Champion Heavyweight Wrestling title. He is known in the ring as "Hairy Babcock." "Hairy" is married to his high school sweetheart, Darlene. They have two sets of twins and live in Alaska, where "Hairy" raises giant cabbages to which he gives credit for his success as a wrestler.

Linda Sieh went to modeling school after graduation and now has a very promising career as a leading model for several magazines. She is married to a South Dakota rancher and as a hobby she strings macaroni.

Donna Helms entered South Dakota State College and there met a professional bowler whom she later married. Donna became so interested in bowling that she is now a professional herself and is presently competing in a National Bowling Tournament in Alabama. Donna told us she gets quite a kick out of remembering her bowling average of 24 when she was just learning at Wall.

Rita Pierce determined to be a success went to college at the University of Denver and later married her husband, who had been one of her professors. They are now in Africa on a lion hunt. They left their four red-headed children at their Palm Springs home with their governess.

Good old cut up, Bob Johnson, joined the National Guard while in High School and later went into active duty and is now a Major. He is married to a Lieutenant and they have one daughter. As a hobby the Major raises goldfish.

Gary Huddleston and Dennis Walsh went to Beauty School after graduation ahd have opened their own Salon in San Francisco. Mr. Hudd and D.W. are often mentioned in the society news and are seen at various night clubs frequently. Both of these 6 feet tall gentlemen are unmarried, but D.W. is contemplating an engagement. Mr. Hudd seems quite content to stay a bachelor and is now competing for the title of "Mr. Twist, USA."

Mary Jane Brennen married right after graduation and is now the proud mother of quadruplets. She was named Mother of the Year and won a trip to Europe. As a hobby Mary Jane runs a day nursery, she says she just loves children.

Bill Hamann owns his own bakery in Wall and has a tremendous business. He became interested in cooking while he was in the Navy doing KP quite often. He and his wife, Neva, have 13 children who are quite a credit to his business as they do the delivering for him.

Marilyn Knapp, World Champion All Around Cowgirl, owns her own rodeo and has appeared in Madison Square Garden several times. Marilyn is unmarried, but is dating a former South Dakota All Around Cowboy.

Don Mihills went to trade school and is now the proud owner of his own body shop in Rapid City. He is married and the father of two children. As a hobby Donald builds racing cars and hunts fossils.

David Fauske, after receiving his degree at SDSC, returned to ranching and now owns most of the range from Interior to Quinn. David became interested in politics and is now serving in the State Legislature, it is rumored he may be a candidate for Governor of South Dakota in the next race. He and his wife, Donna, have one child.

Ray Ghering is now holding the World Champion Heavyweight Boxing Title. Ray is known as "Gorgeous Ghering" and is married to a model. As a hobby Ray owns a chain of drive-ins called "Ray's Restrooms."

Larry Eisenbraun went to teachers college and is now Superintendent of Wall High School. He is the proud father of three sets of triplets. Mr. Eisenbraun plans on accepting the job as President of Black Hills Teachers College.

Lyle Carmichael returned to the ranch after his four years at WHS and is now the owner of a 20 thousand acre ranch. As a hobby he owns a sale barn and is married to the 1965 Miss America.

A phone call to Creighton found Jerry Eisenbraun and his wife living on a farm there with their 9 children. In his spare time Jerry cuts the top of cars and makes them into convertibles for his used car lot, "Jerry's Junk Joint."

Jerry told us Irma Harnish, Goldie Geigle, and Laura Denke had gone to the World's Fair in Seattle after graduation and there Irma met and married a logger. She and her husband are living in the Yukon. Laura settled in the state of Washington and is engaged to a professor at the college where she is presently studying veterinarian medicine. Goldie returned to Wall and is engaged to a former schoolmate whom she fondly calls "Paunch." They plan to marry as soon as Goldie graduates from nurses training at DWU.

Allen Foster joined the Navy after his graduation and is now an Admiral. He and his wife, Darla, have no children but are very fond of their two French poodles, Fritz and George.

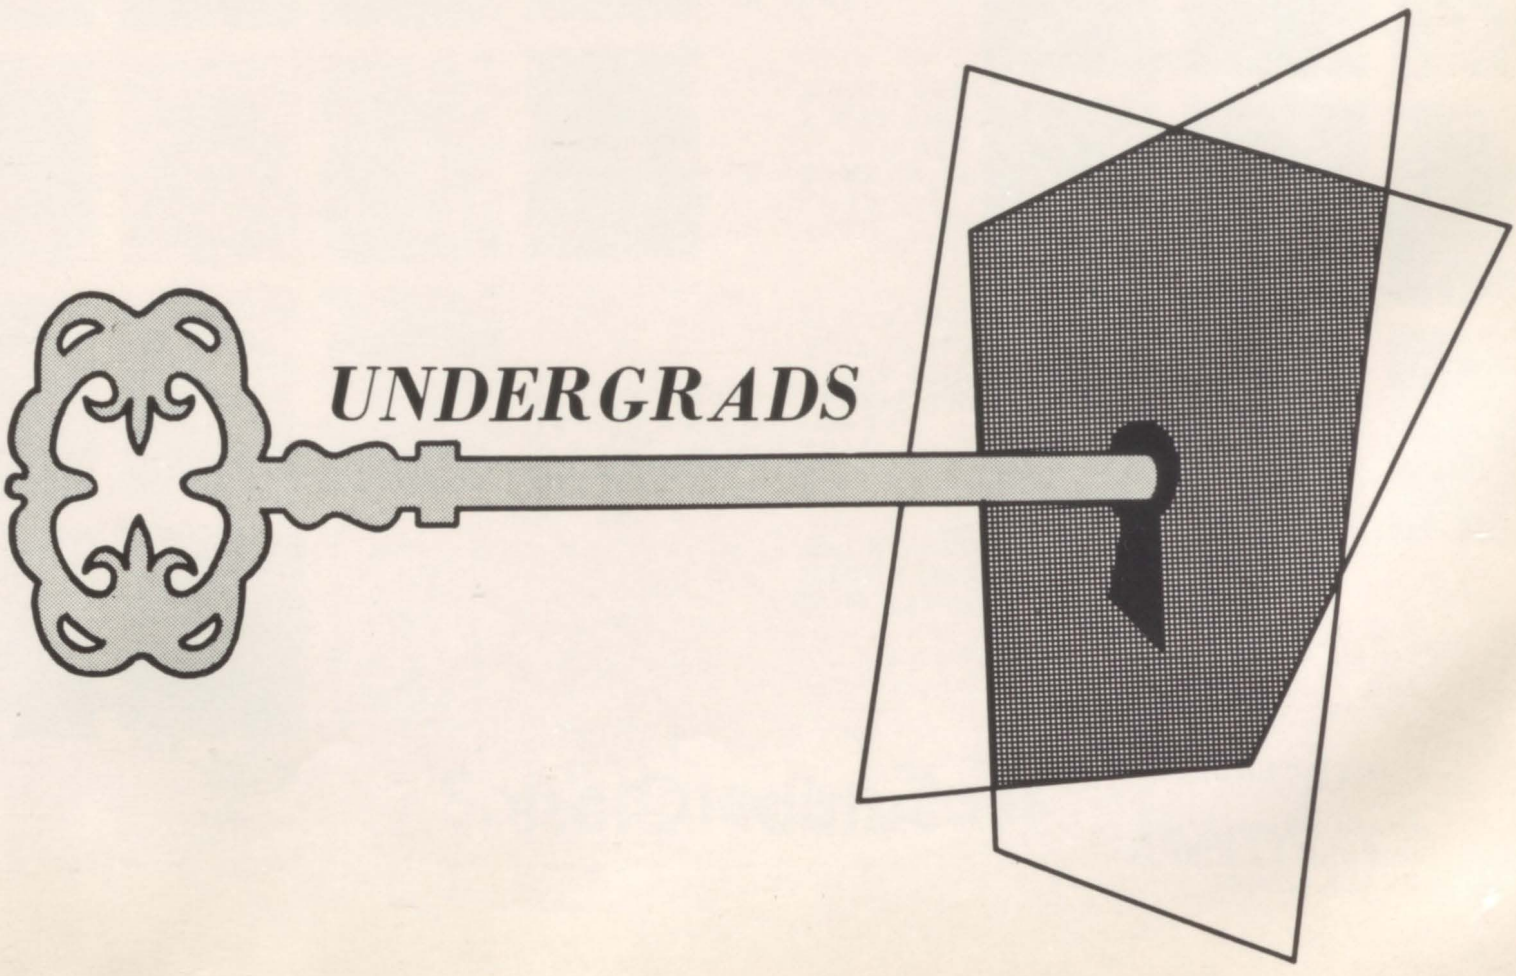

Vance St. Ogger returned to California and married a former schoolmate. He then went to Law School and opened his practice in Pucawana. He has a reputation as a criminal lawyer and has his own TV series, "If the Price is Right, I'm Your Man."

Karl DeLand went to business school and is now the manager of MGM studios. He has quite a lot of influence in the better circles of Hollywood. His wife, a former model, and he have four children. It is rumored Karl may be directing a movie soon.

Norman Geigle graduated from South Dakota Tech with honors and is now an engineer in the Belgian Congo. Norman is director of the Peace Corp and there is rumor to Norman's running for a high government office in the near future. He is married and the father of four children.

George Krebs went to California to find work after graduation and tried acting just for kicks. He was an overnight sensation and is now on the list of the top ten stars in Hollywood. He and his wife, Brenda Lee, have nine children.

Donnie Kjerstad, after graduation, went to medical school and has become a famous Obstetrician. He is unmarried and seems to be quite content at leaving it that way. As a hobby the good Dr. raises caterpillars.
