A MESSAGE FROM OUR FOUNDER

Dedication is the cornerstone of Capital Prep's success.

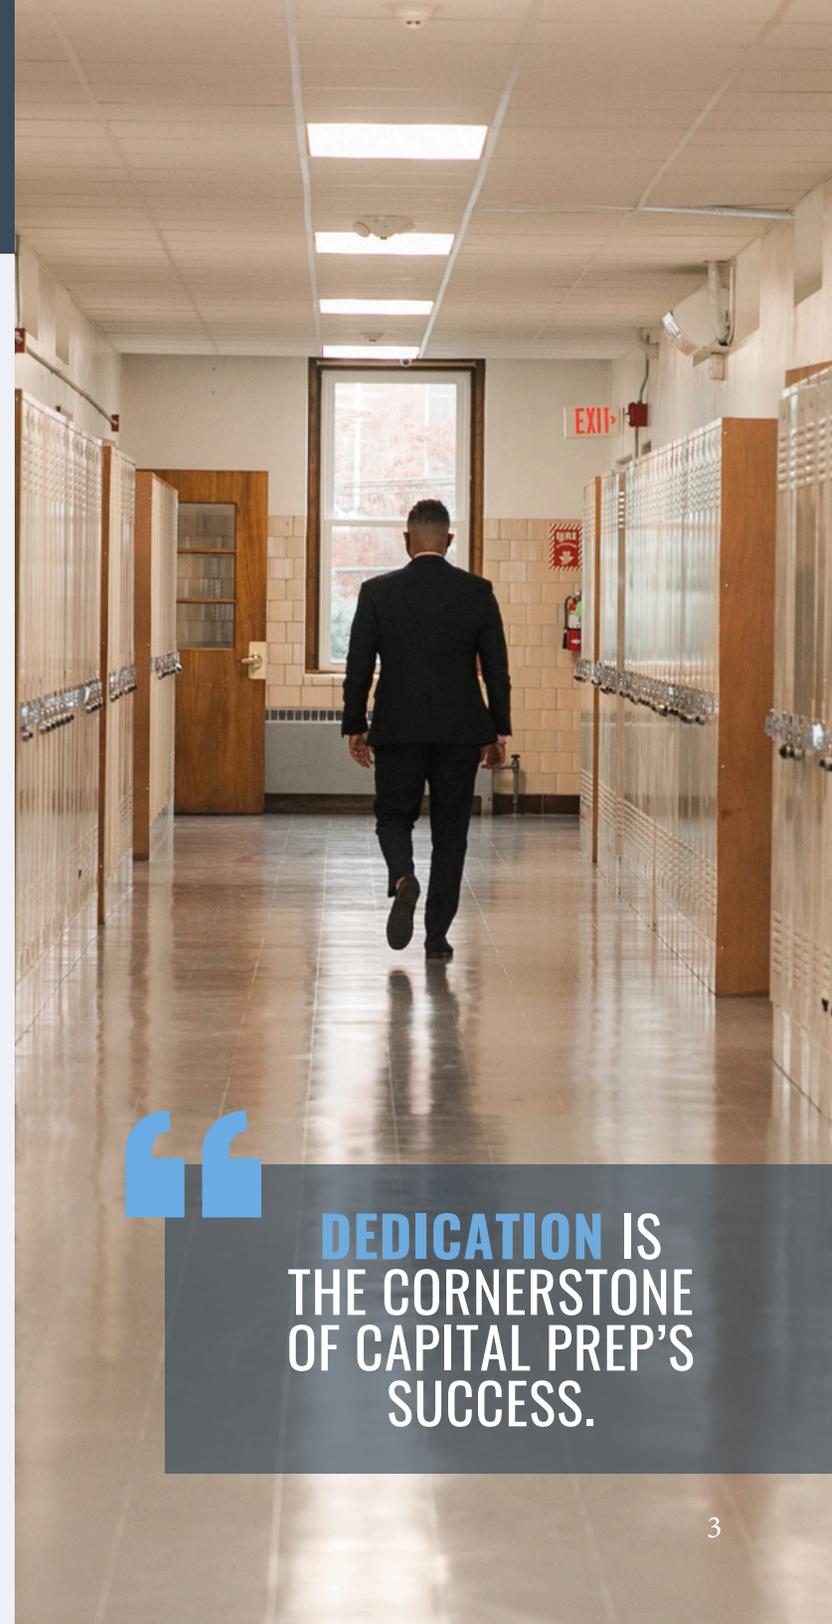

The families, faculty, staff, scholars, policymakers, and community partners of Capital Prep have dedicated themselves to changing the world. Our longer school days and years, our social justice project, two-sport requirement, and much more -- reflect a community commitment to ensuring that the scholars of Capital Prep, change the way the world sees our children, and how they see themselves.

The results of our dedication are powerful. In the pages that follow, you will see profound successes. You will see that our schools are national leaders in preparing children from historically disadvantaged populations, for college and breaking the cycles of poverty and racism.

Nowhere is our dedication more prominent than in the celebration of the 20th year of Capital Prep. For 20 years, Capital Prep has believed and seen we can rewrite the notion of what children from historically disadvantaged populations can become. I invite you to enjoy this comprehensive report on the outcomes of our dedication.

Thank you for your dedication to our children and our commitment to changing the world.

In Partnership,
Dr. Steve Perry
Founder and Head of Schools

DEDICATION: IT TAKES A VILLAGE

Thank you to our families, staff, and communities who make us who we are, and the work we do possible.

OUR APPROACH:

WE SUPPORT THE WHOLE CHILD

INDIVIDUALIZE

teaching and learning in order to develop scholar's metacognitive skills through strategies such as student-led conferences and unique "scholar success plans."

INTEGRATE

the school's theme of social justice throughout the curriculum and scholars' educational experience in order to encourage scholars to view themselves as part of a community and prepare scholars to become agents of change.

WE PROVIDE

an individualized network of affective supports through the use of our Advisory Model intended to strengthen the relationship between scholars, staff, and their learning environment.

HOLD HIGH EXPECTATIONS

for each scholar tailored to their strengths and opportunities.

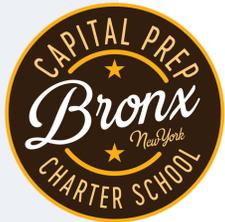

PURSUE

parent and community engagement in order to ensure our connection with the whole child, which enhances our ability to support each scholar's specific needs.

OUR MODEL HAS BEEN TESTED, AND THE RESULTS ARE PROVEN.

Capital Prep accepts students in at every grade, many of whom are behind grade level or have gone through multiple schools, and grows them academically.

Capital Prep Bronx scholars as early as 7th grade are taking and passing Regents, and when looking at state testing data, our scholars continue to outperform their host district, New York City, and the State of New York in ELA and Math proficiency scores.*

UNIVERSITY

Trevon Garrett, the Class of 2024 Valedictorian and Head Boy of Student Government, stepped into a legacy as the first scholar from CPREP Harbor to be awarded The Gates Scholarship.

The Gates Scholarship represents a beacon of hope, designed to break down the financial barriers that often stand between exceptional minority students and their dreams. For Trevon, a young man who has consistently exemplified leadership and academic excellence, this scholarship was more than an award; it was a key to a future he had tirelessly worked toward.

As Trevon embarks on his journey at Georgetown, his story serves as a powerful reminder that hard work and perseverance can open doors to incredible opportunities.

Empowering Future Leaders: The Vital Role of HBCUs

We know firsthand the profound impact that Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs) can have on our scholars. HBCUs provide an environment where students not only see themselves reflected in their peers and professors but also thrive amidst a rich legacy of academic excellence and cultural heritage.

Attending Lincoln on a Presidential Scholarship (Full Ride)

“Attending college has changed me and my family’s life because being first generation, I’m accomplishing goals that my family never had the chance to accomplish. They wanted to make a better life for me and my siblings. I love my HBCU!”

Morehouse was the best decision of my entire life.

Sheik Kante

Capital Prep Harlem Class of 2024
Morehouse College Class of 2028

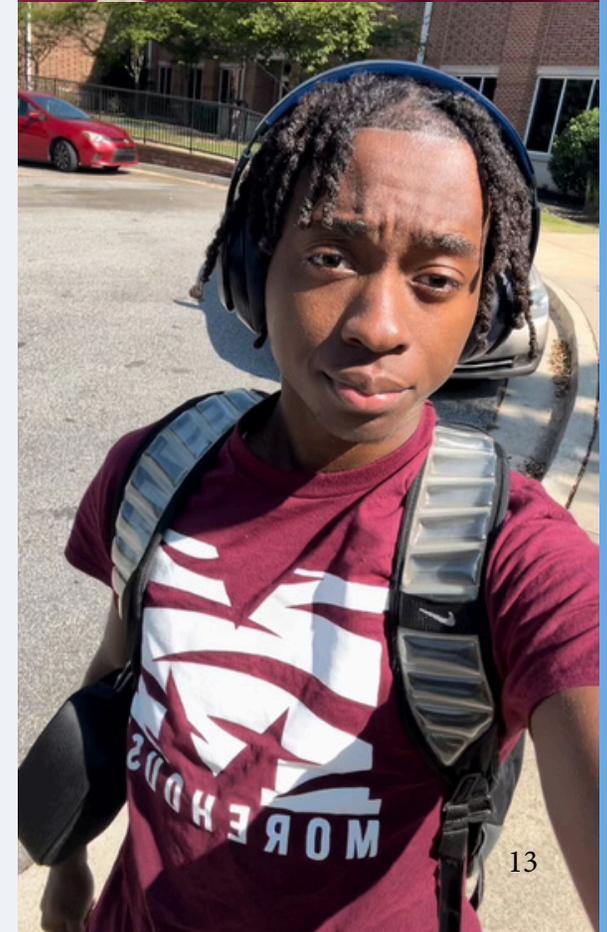

Words can't explain the time I'm having at Morehouse but in short: it's the best decision I've ever made in my entire life. Morehouse has truly become a home to me where I can authentically be myself and be within an area that values my black life & body. I've truly never been happier in my life. So many opportunities, lessons, tools, and people that I've met have shaped me into a man in contrast to time in New York where I was a boy with a child mindset.

Attending Morehouse has helped my family envision a brighter future for us all and provide hope for them. I have truly found a place that can be called my home when I'm away from home and I have grown as a man and this step was taken through separation from those who didn't want better for themselves alongside a risk.

Going into this year not knowing anyone was very frightening, but it definitely changed as I was welcomed by my brothers and sisters with open arms and have formed long lasting bonds that will outlive my life; a legacy.

Capital Prep supported my transition into college by instilling a sense of "self-advocacy" within me.

CAPITAL PREP'S PLANS FOR EXPANSION

Capital Prep offers a solution for families seeking equitable education opportunities. By blending innovation with proven strategies, we address the needs of underserved scholars while laying the groundwork for expansion.

We are fighting the educational apartheid that is endemic to many traditional public schools. Capital Prep seeks to provide options to families who deserve a better choice. Capital Prep graduates receive a college prep curriculum (and even college classes) during high school and are accepted to a 4-year college.

We are on a mission to close the achievement gap. We pride ourselves on delivering life-changing outcomes.

Capital Prep is committed to opening schools in communities where there is a need for another educational option for underserved, and often overlooked, scholars and families.

In both New Rochelle, NY, and Middletown, CT, the schools serve a relatively diverse student body and overall perform reasonably well. However, if you look deeper, you uncover a stark achievement gap between the Black and Latinx scholars, compared to their white peers.*

These overall achievement numbers cover up the truth, that the underserved communities are not being educated. That is where Capital Prep comes in as a choice for families who are tired of being cast aside, having to fight to get into college preparation or honors classes, or simply receiving the best education possible for their child.

CAPITAL PREPARATORY
NEW ROCHELLE
 CHARTER SCHOOL

THE LATEST

Our charter application, submitted on June 3, 2024, has officially been approved by SUNY and is slated to open in Fall of 2025 with 150 seats across grades K, 6, 7.

In 1961, New Rochelle was convicted in federal court for gerrymandering to promote segregation for Lincoln Elementary School. The pain of that intentional harm has yet to be redressed in the New Rochelle community, even decades later.

TACKLING THE ACHIEVEMENT GAP

Our success in predominantly Black and African American communities like Harlem and the Bronx demonstrates our ability to close the achievement gap and provide equitable opportunities.

Even in all student comparisons... Capital Prep outperformed New Rochelle across grades 6-8 in ELA (with the exception of 6th grade at Capital Prep Bronx, by a small margin.)

When focusing on Black and African American scholars... Capital Prep Harlem exceeded the proficiency levels of New Rochelle in ELA across grades 6-8, while Bronx exceeded New Rochelle in Math and ELA grades 7-8.

MIDDLETOWN

WHY MIDDLETOWN?

Middletown Public Schools is one of 33 Alliance Districts – school districts among the lowest Accountability Index. In the center of town is Wesleyan University, one of the top-ranked institutions and one of the most expensive in the U.S. While the school attracts some of the wealthiest families to its campus, it is surrounded by an over-concentration of low-income communities in the downtown area.

Our success in predominantly Black and African American communities like Bridgeport demonstrates our ability to close the achievement gap and provide equitable opportunities.

Focusing specifically on Black and African American scholars, Capital Prep Harbor exceeded the proficiency levels of Middletown in grades 4, 6, 7, and 8. While data for 5th grade was insufficient, our performance in 3rd grade was just 1 percentage point shy of the district's.

THE LATEST

Our charter was approved by the State Board of Education in 2023, yet the $4.5 million allocated to us was stripped from the budget in the final moments, in a closed door meeting. We are on a relentless mission to ensure our funding is allocated back into the budget in the upcoming legislative session.

ATHLETICS AT CAPITAL PREP: OUR 2-SPORT REQUIREMENT

The Capital Prep Athletic Department's mission is to provide a comprehensive, diverse, wholesome, and dynamic program. As an integral part of a student's total education, athletics instills the values of teamwork, sportsmanship, positive self-esteem, and health & wellness.

Throughout the course of the year, scholars are required to participate in a 2-sport minimum, either as a player or as support staff. This commitment is baked into our extended school day and year and showcases the dedication of our scholars, families, and staff who actively engage in after-school practices, weekend games, and events throughout the athletics seasons.

SOCIAL JUSTICE

IS IN OUR DNA.

Capital Prep was born out of a national crisis in education, where access to quality education is defined by your zip code. As early as kindergarten, children begin answering essential questions every year that allows them to develop and understand their place in society as a social justice agent of change.

Not only is the quest for social justice in our DNA, and why we are here, social justice is at the root of the CPS curriculum: Capital Prep scholars are taught that they have an obligation to work to correct circumstances that are unjust when they infringe upon their community.

Our Social Justice Project (“SJP”) showcases evidence of a scholar’s ability to fulfill the mission of Capital Preparatory Schools and is a graduation requirement for our seniors. In order to pass the SJP, scholars must do the following:

- Identify a social justice problem in the community.
- Create an informed “Social Justice Action Plan.”
- Conduct activities that will attempt to solve the problems.
- Raise awareness in the community through an event or series of events.
- Analyze data throughout the project.
- Present a comprehensive overview of findings to a panel of academic and community advisors.

LEARNER EXPECTATIONS WE ARE CPREP!

A Capital Prep education is guided by our signature Learner Expectations: Our scholars graduate as Collaborators, Problem Solvers, Researchers, Empathetic Citizens, and Pillars of Knowledge. They are CPREP.

These five core values help scholars become better equipped to tackle rigorous academics, meet our high expectations, and reap the benefits of a quality education.

COLLABORATORS

Show respect and cooperation to achieve individual and common goals.

PROBLEM SOLVERS

Use appropriate personal and team strategies to address interpersonal, intrapersonal, and group conflicts.

RESEARCHERS

Look for and listen attentively to important information and utilize it to make positive choices / decisions / conclusions.

EMPATHETIC CITIZENS

Act responsibly, safely, and thoughtfully to create positive change for all members of the school, local, and global communities.

PILLARS OF KNOWLEDGE

Model the above expectations in their words, actions, and goals.

AREAS OF SUPPORT

Your contribution is crucial in implementing our entire Capital Preparatory Schools Model to change scholars' lives.

HUMAN CAPITAL

Ensuring we have the right ratio of staff to scholars is critical to providing whole-child support, academically and social-emotionally. Network-wide back office support, strong administrative leaders, dedicated illuminators, and qualified social workers and intervention specialists are the engine of our organization.

We believe that all scholars deserve a robust and rigorous curriculum that rivals some of the most affluent institutions in the country. Your contribution ensures we realize this vision, providing our scholars with a critical advantage as they take on college and beyond!

INNOVATION IN EDUCATION TECHNOLOGY

Being able to provide innovative and engaging approaches to learning is a core component of the CPS model. Now more than ever, your contribution supports our growth in this area, and our commitment to providing the latest access to cutting-edge technology in learning.

FACILITIES

Every child deserves to learn in the best environment possible. CPS aspires to provide facilities that are safe, clean, technologically advanced, and overall reflective of the environments afforded to those in more affluent communities.
