

Broadcast Media Pathway Inderkum High School

Broadcast Media: Pathway courses expose students to cutting edge media technology skills, video production and communication, storytelling and production collaboration, while simultaneously meeting related deadlines. Upon completing the pathway, students acquire the skills to edit videos, craft a professional resume, and enhance their communication and interview abilities, making them well-prepared for any career.

Industry Certification

- Adobe

Dual Enrollment

- Broadcast Media II & III Courses earn college credit through articulation at Cosumnes River College

Career Opportunities:

- TV Media
- Anchor/reporter
- Public Relations/government media communications including Cal OES, San Jose Sharks.
- Digital media production and communications, live video production, including SECC-TV
- Social media journalism
- Public service announcements

Courses

Year 1	Broadcast Media I
Year 2	Broadcast Media II
Year 3	Broadcast Media III

Courses are available to all Inderkum High School grade levels.

