

Permission Form for Participation in a Student Club

Parental permission is required for any student pursuing membership in a curricular or non-curriculum related club that meets on campus. This requirement applies to all clubs. This document must be signed by a parent or legal guardian and returned to the sponsor of the curricular club, or the staff monitor for the non-curriculum related student club before the student may be enrolled as a member of the club, attend any on campus meetings for the club, or participate in any on campus activities for the club.
