2025 PSAT/NMSQT FAQs

1. When and where will the test be administered?

On Saturday, October 11, 2025, at 8:00 a.m., we will be offering the PSAT/NMSQT at Casteel High School.

2. Who is eligible to take the PSAT/NMSQT?

Casteel offers 400 testing spots for current 9th, 10th & 11th graders with priority given to 11th graders. Sophomores and freshmen can use this test as a practice for their junior year.

3. When does registration open?

Registration opens for juniors only on Monday, July 28, 2025. If space allows, sophomores and freshmen will be able to register starting Monday, August 18, 2025.

4. How do I register?

Registration is completed using Total Registration. Students should click on the link provided on the school website, scan the QR code, or visit <https://user.totalregistration.net/PSAT/030820> to register.

5. How much does the PSAT/NMSQT cost and how do I pay for it?

The cost of the test is $25. Once you have registered on Total Registration, payment can be made in the Bookstore with your confirmation page or on the Parent Portal: <https://chandleraz.infinitecampus.org/campus/portal/parents/chandler.jsp>. The deadline to register for and purchase the test is September 5, 2025.

6. Why should my student take the PSAT/NMSQT?

Scholarship opportunities: Taken junior year, a high score on the PSAT/NMSQT could qualify your student for the National Merit Scholarship Competition. This may result in thousands of dollars in scholarship money and opportunities to attend a prestigious university.

Free Test Preparation: Save hundreds of dollars on test preparation books or tutoring. The exam provides a detailed score report. Your student can link their scores to Khan Academy to create an individualized SAT test preparation program free of charge. Your student will
