New Teacher Orientation serves as homecoming for alumni

Nearly 25% of new teachers across the district are JMCSS graduates

Homecomings typically take place in October, but the New Teacher Orientation held at Community Montessori was a homecoming of sorts on Monday for the district alumni shown in the photo above. JCM, North Side, South Side, Liberty, Madison Academic, JCM Early College, and Jackson High were represented among the new teachers in attendance. The New Teacher Orientation provides key information and strategies to new educators in our district, helping them prepare for a successful school year. It was a full-circle moment for many, returning to serve the schools that once shaped them. Returning teachers report Monday, July 28, and students begin the new school year on Monday, August 4, ready to learn, grow, and build strong connections across classrooms.

We're excited to kick off a brand-new school year on Monday, August 4! As we prepare to welcome students back, we want to thank our families and community for the continued support and encouragement. Your partnership makes a difference!

La Orientación para Maestros Nuevos es un regreso a casa para algunos

Normalmente, las reuniones de bienvenida se llevan a cabo en octubre, pero la Orientación para Maestros Nuevos, celebrada en Community Montessori, fue una especie de regreso a casa el lunes para los exalumnos del distrito que aparecen en la foto de arriba. Entre los nuevos maestros asistentes se encontraban representantes de JCM, North Side, South Side, Liberty, Madison Academic, JCM Early College y Jackson High. La Orientación para Maestros Nuevos proporciona información y estrategias clave a los nuevos educadores de nuestro distrito, ayudándolos a prepararse para un año escolar exitoso. Fue un momento de cambio para muchos, al regresar a las escuelas que los formaron. Los maestros que regresan se presentan el lunes 28 de julio, y los estudiantes comienzan el nuevo año escolar el lunes 4 de agosto, listos para aprender, crecer y construir conexiones sólidas en todas las aulas.

We're excited to kick off a brand-new school year on Monday, August 4! As we prepare to welcome students back, we want to thank our families and community for the continued support and encouragement. Your partnership makes a difference!
