

West Bonner County School District

INSTRUCTION

2710

Alternative Measure to the Idaho Standards Achievement Tests

Effective with the graduating class of 2013, any 10th student who has not achieved the state-mandated proficiency scores on the 10th grade reading, mathematics, and/or language usage Idaho Standards Achievement Tests (ISAT) will be informed by the school counselor, in writing and in person, of the following requirements before the end of their 10th grade school year.

- a. They are required to continue to take the ISAT test(s) where they have not attained proficiency until they achieve proficiency up to and including the fall ISAT test their senior year.
- b. They will be provided support for learning through coursework and/or on-line learning tools such as PLATO/PLNI if a student does not achieve the state-mandated proficiency scores on the ISAT reading, mathematics, and/or language usage by the end of their Junior year, they will be informed in writing and in person, of the following requirements before the end of their junior year.
 - They are required to take the ISAT test(s) in the area of where they have not yet achieved proficiency during the fall semester of their senior year.
 - The student will be placed on an alternate route to proficiency as defined by the district's alternate route process.

Cross Reference: Policy 2700 High School Graduation Requirements

Legal Reference: IDAPA 08.02.03.105 Graduation from High School
IDAPA 08.02.03.107 High School Graduation Standards

Procedure History:

Promulgated on: March 14, 2007

Revised on: November 19, 2008

Revised on: January 18, 2012

Revised on: October 19, 2012

Formatted: Centered