

Mike Griesinger - Biography

Mr. Griesinger is currently a Cologne Academy Parent Member board representative. He is a native of southwest Michigan, where he developed what has become a life-long fascination with the weather. This interest in the weather led him to getting a B.S. in Atmospheric Science at Central Michigan University (where he met his wife Stephanie), then an M.S. in Atmospheric Science from Texas Tech University. Mr. Griesinger joined the National Weather Service in 2006, stationed at the Atlanta office and has been at the Twin Cities office since 2009. In addition to his job as a meteorologist, Mr. Griesinger been a firefighter with the city of Carver since 2016. As of 2025, both his son and daughter will be scholars at Cologne Academy. He is excited to be a part of the school board for such an amazing school that emphasizes not only academic excellence, but fostering strong character qualities as well. He looks forward to helping shape the future of the school while still dishing out lunches to the scholars on any given Thursday!
