- Please note commendable progress over the last year.

The report highlights exceptional progress in the superintendent's communication with the board over the past year, showcasing a consistent and multifaceted approach to keeping board members informed. Evidence includes regular superintendent reports at meetings and retreats, timely daily/near-daily emails, and extensive updates on key issues such as bonds, levies, capital projects, safety, and budget. Additionally, the superintendent has actively supported board-community engagement through linkages, student roundtables, and various digital platforms like website posts and videos. Board members commend the superintendent for his thoroughness, responsiveness, and effort to provide valuable resources, including news articles and communications from principals.
