The North Allegheny girls' volleyball team secured an eighth straight state championship in the fall of 2024. The Tigers' title victory tied the state record for most consecutive PIAA championships in the sport.

Franklin Elementary's Akshay Subash won first place in the 2024 Pennsylvania Department of Transportation School Bus Safety Poster Contest. Subash was recognized for winning this state-wide competition at an award ceremony in Harrisburg.

Jenna Danka and April Wismer from Hosack Elementary were the inaugural recipients of North Allegheny Police Chief Eric Harpster's "Chief's Challenge Coin." In October 2024, Danka and Wismer performed life-saving CPR techniques to successfully rescue a student and dislodge food from the child's airway.

The North Allegheny Air Force JROTC presents the colors for the National Anthem before a football game at Newman Stadium on September 20, 2024. This award-winning unit includes several cadets who have received prestigious AFJROTC Flight Academy Scholarships, along with other accolades.

For many seasons, North Allegheny's athletic teams have consistently excelled in the PIAA's largest classification. In the fall of 2024, the NA boys' golf, girls' volleyball, and boys' water polo teams each won State Championships. All three teams were proudly honored at the State Capitol in Harrisburg.

A photograph of three people—two men and one woman—smiling and standing in front of a large, bright yellow background featuring the text "#BeTheKind" in a bold, sans-serif font. The man on the left is bald with a beard, wearing a maroon jacket over a collared shirt and tie. The woman in the center has long, wavy brown hair and is wearing a dark top. The man on the right has dark hair and a beard, wearing a light blue button-down shirt. The background also includes a small yellow logo with the letters "L" and "TM" below the main text.

Marshall Middle School was recognized as a Pennsylvania Don Eichhorn Schools: School to Watch for the 2024-25 school year. MMS is one of only 38 schools on the Schools to Watch list in Pennsylvania. Pictured are MMS Principal Dr. Dan Swoger, Assistant Principal Dr. Jenna Fraser, and teacher Bill Mascari.

In March 2025, North Allegheny Senior High School teacher Sharon Volpe was honored with the Sigma Xi Outstanding Teaching Award. Sigma Xi, The Scientific Research Honor Society, is an international, non-profit honor society for scientists and engineers with over 500 chapters, including one at Carnegie Mellon University. Each year, the CMU chapter recognizes one high school teacher in the area. Mrs. Volpe, who teaches Advanced Placement Calculus BC and Honors Linear Algebra, earned the award for the 2024–25 school year.

A woman with dark hair and a pearl earring is looking at a large white number '3' on a wall. The number is part of a sequence of numbers (1, 2, 3, 4, 5) that are partially visible in the image. The woman is wearing a dark top and a necklace. The background is a plain wall.

North Allegheny DECA participated in the International Career Development Conference in Orlando, Florida, in April 2025. Fifty-four students from NA qualified for the conference, and five were recognized at the international level. These students included freshmen Joy Zhang and Sophia Campos, sophomores Aniketh Ghosh and Randy Bai, and junior Aditi Motha.

Zoe Fraser from Carson Middle School achieved an impressive milestone by winning an international writing contest. Press 53, an independent publisher based in Winston-Salem, North Carolina, sponsors a 53-word story contest each month. In January of 2025, Fraser was one of 454 writers from around the world who submitted entries, and she won the contest with her essay titled "A Life Legacy."
