About Project LIFE

Project LIFE is more than a transition to work program. This comprehensive training combines education with authentic work experience to prepare students with disabilities for an independent future.

Program Overview

RESILIENT

Project LIFE graduates are ready to tackle the challenge of adult life with grace and dignity. They are able to recover from setbacks and continue to persevere with their goals.

EMPOWERED

Project LIFE graduates are self-determined. They are ready to articulate their preferences in all areas of their life and begin the process of achieving their dreams.

EMPLOYMENT READY

Project LIFE graduates are ready for competitive community employment. They have developed the necessary skills to begin a successful career path that aligns with their interests and preferences.

PROBLEM SOLVER

Project LIFE graduates are able to utilize strategies to navigate challenges in all life settings. They can work independently or with others to achieve success.

CIVIC MINDED

Project LIFE graduates are fully participating citizens in their community. They are able to utilize community resources, participate in local events, and support their community through participation in service to others.

“Coming together is a beginning. Keeping together is a process. Working together is a success.” -Henry Ford
