1. Narrative description of the Prop 28 arts education program(s) funded. (2500 character limit).

During the 2024/25 school year, the Academies of the Antelope Valley (AAV) did not utilize Proposition 28 Arts and Music in Schools (AMS) funds to employ certificated or classified personnel, or teaching aides. The initial year focused on assessing program needs and aligning potential investments with existing VAPA initiatives. For the 2025/26 school year, however, plans are actively underway to strategically leverage Prop 28 AMS funds to supplement and enhance existing arts programming currently supported through general fund and Title IV allocations. The goal is to expand equitable access to high-quality arts education across all AAV sites by identifying opportunities to hire targeted support personnel - including arts tutors, instructional aides, or community partners - to strengthen student engagement and elevate program quality. Through this thoughtful integration of Prop 28 resources, the Academies will be better positioned to enrich student experiences in music, visual arts, media arts, and performing arts, while supporting the district""s broader mission of preparing students for both college and creative careers.
