

CFISD Principles of Human Services

Course Description:

Scope and Sequence

Principles of Human Services is a year-long course that is offered to 7th and 8th grade students to explore careers related to people’s personal and family needs. Information and skill development will focus on early childhood development, services for families & community, personal care, nutrition and wellness, apparel construction and interior design. Development of personal characteristics for success in all careers along with hands-on experiences in the cooking and sewing labs will also be included. Students begin exploring the public services endorsement and are introduced to the following CFISD courses: Lifetime Nutrition & Wellness, Interpersonal Studies, Education & Training, Child Development, Child Guidance and Intro to Cosmetology. (1 High School credit)

- Lab supplies or fee may be required
- Offered in middle school only

TEKS

Programs of Study: Early Learning, Cosmetology, and Teaching/Training

Cluster: Human Services

Endorsement: Public Services

- Meets advanced course requirement (Y/N): N
- Meets foundation requirement for math, science, fine arts, English, LOTE (Y/N-area): N

Industry Certification/Credentials: n/a

Instructional Units	Pacing
1st Semester Personal characteristics Employability skills Family & community services Counseling & mental health	Grading Period 1 Grading Period 2
2nd Semester Early childhood development & service Skills necessary to enhance personal & career effectiveness in consumer services Personal care services Interior design Fashion design	Grading Period 3 Grading Period 4

Primary Instructional Materials: Principles of Human Services, Goodheart Willcox, ISBN: 9781683111825