

Types of Student Generative AI Use

Type 1

No generative AI assistance

Type 2

Generative AI-assisted brainstorming

Type 3

Generative AI-assisted research

Type 4

Generative AI-assisted editing & revision

Type 5

Generative AI collaborative creation

Student's role in learning

Students create products without the use of generative AI.

Students use generative AI to brainstorm ideas.

Students paraphrase information provided by generative AI.

Students create a product & then edit/revise using generative AI suggestions.

Students evaluate, edit & revise generative AI products.

Generative AI's role in student learning

No generative AI is used at any point.

Generative AI generates ideas.

Generative AI provides information.

Generative AI makes suggestions on a student-generated product.

Generative AI generate a product.

Attributing AI

N/A

N/A

Generative AI usage must be cited & referenced.

ALWAYS

Critically assess & verify generative AI content.

NEVER

Share personal, sensitive or confidential information with generative AI.

