

JESUIT

COLLEGE PREPARATORY
SCHOOL OF DALLAS

MERIT SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE TO NEW STUDENTS

Michael A. Earsing Presidential Scholarship Award

Presented to multiple students each year and renewable to recipients in good academic standing, this prestigious award recognizes exceptional academic achievement and individuals who have shown promise as future scholars.

Benefactors: Holly and Mike Davis '83

Leadership Scholar Award

Presented to multiple students each year and renewable to recipients in good academic standing, this esteemed award recognizes students who have demonstrated academic excellence, a commitment to a well-rounded education, and dedication to service.

Benefactors:

Carl and Cecelia S. Pellegrini Scholarship Fund

Awarded to an incoming Jesuit freshman from St. Paul Catholic Classical School or St. Thomas Aquinas Catholic School who exemplifies Christian Values, demonstrates leadership, possesses a strong academic record, and participates in community service.

Benefactors: Suzanne and Ed Pellegrini '74

The Shelly and Stuart Schutze '89 Endowed Scholarship

Awarded to a rising freshman from St. Patrick Catholic School who demonstrates an exemplary character in being a Man for Others, excellent academic achievement, and participation in a School extracurricular activity.

Benefactors: Shelly and Stuart Schutze '89

MERIT SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE TO CURRENT STUDENTS

Pedro Arrupe Award

Merited by a junior judged by the faculty to be most representative of the values of a Jesuit education: committed to growth, pursuit of justice, willingness to serve, a compassion for all, and openness to the Spirit.

Benefactor: Anonymous

Bachendorf's Scholarship for Overall Academic Achievement

Awarded to the rising junior and senior student who has shown the greatest academic improvement.

Benefactor: Lawrence Bock

Andrew W. Bark '98 Memorial Scholarship

Awarded to a rising senior who best demonstrates passion for art and who reflects the artistic talents, character, and spirit of Andrew Bark.

Benefactors: Mary and Stuart Bark

Dean Oliver Clarke '94 Memorial Scholarship

Awarded to a junior, who through their character, responds with a generosity beyond the ordinary and has helped create a community in which each individual receives respect and support.

Benefactors: Phyllis and Carlton Clarke

James M. Collins Citizenship Award

Awarded to a junior student who best exemplify the values of Texas Congressman Collins: knowledge of history and government, participation in the community, and American citizenship.

Benefactor: Dorothy Collins Torbert

Counselor's Scholarship

Awarded to students who are committed to being a Man for Others, who through their effort and character, are a strong example of what Jesuit represents.

Benefactor: Anonymous

Guy Delaney Class of 2020 Memorial Scholarship

Awarded to a rising junior who most exemplifies the desire to put forth his best effort, academically and athletically, and who best reflects the spirit of Guy Delaney.

Benefactors: Shawn Delaney and Neil Delaney

Beverly and John M. Dietschy, Sr. Family Science Award

Awarded to a rising sophomore of high character, exemplary academic performance, and a demonstrated passion for the sciences. This scholarship is renewable to students in good academic standing.

Benefactors: Beverly and John Dietschy

Frank Guida '02 Memorial Scholarship

Awarded to a junior student who has exhibited substantial talent and promise in music, theater, or art.

Benefactors: Karen and Joseph Guida

Patrick E. Haggerty Math/Science Scholars Award

One-year partial tuition scholarships awarded to selected students entering the sophomore, junior, and senior grade levels who have demonstrated academic excellence in the areas of math and science while exhibiting leadership and service.

Benefactors: Julie and Louis Beecherl, Suzanne and Jan Collmer '52, Lou Ann and Mike Corboy, Jenny and Tim Dove '75, Jan and Cliff Ensminger, Jackie and Mike George, Bea and Pat Haggerty, Pat and Dick Hanschen, Caroline and Jon Jacoby '55, Margaret McDermott, and Sally Ann Hudnall and Jim Snodgrass '65

Tim Henrion '87 Memorial Scholarship

Awarded to a rising senior on financial aid who has excelled in academics and activities, and "who is using his God-given talents and gifts in service of the community."

Benefactor: Walt Henrion

JWA Man for Others Award

Awarded to rising sophomore, juniors, and seniors who exemplify, in their words and actions, what it means to be a Jesuit student.

Benefactor: Jesuit Women's Auxiliary

Louis Kramer Memorial Scholarship

Awarded to a junior who has shown exemplary dedication to service during his junior year.

Benefactors: Kris and Matt Kramer

T.J. Martinez, S.J. Memorial Scholarship

Awarded to a rising senior for a distinguished record of community service.

Benefactor: Ryan Jetton '04

Scott Lewis McWhorter '93 Scholarship

Awarded to a student noted for his concern for others and commitment to the Jesuit experience.

Benefactors: Frances B. and Bob McWhorter

Mark S. Moussa '76 Young Entrepreneurs' Scholarship Fund

Awarded to a student who demonstrates a strong entrepreneurial spirit and interest in being a future business owner.

Benefactor: Mark Moussa '76

Susan and Jon Piot Family Scholarship

Awarded to a Catholic student and rising sophomore who best exemplifies the Jesuit mission in being a Man for Others and continues to participate in at least one extracurricular activity. This scholarship is renewable to students in good academic standing.

Benefactors: Susan and Jon Piot

The Jameson C. C. Sanders Memorial Scholarship Fund

Awarded to a student for outstanding academic performance and contributions to the community.

Benefactors: Jennifer and John Sanders '97

Shakespeare Award

Presented annually to two junior students who demonstrate a deep interest and curiosity about literature and how great literature works, and who exhibit both a noticeable talent in their own writing and an interest to grow in skill as a writer.

Benefactors: Lisa and Steven Meyer

Shannon Family "Man for Others" Scholarship

Awarded to a student for demonstrated excellence in community service and social justice.

Benefactors: Pat and Andy Shannon '54