

High school students will receive a specific list of any required school supplies from individual teachers upon starting school. It is suggested that students begin the school year with the basics (paper, pencil, pens).

