Dear Eckard,

Very many thanks for your letter of May 18th and for the honour of the invitation which it conveys. I appreciate this very much, and if I can possibly come I certainly will. I have to put it that way, because in this job I never know five weeks (or even five minutes) in advance what may blow up. But the morning of July 2nd is at present free, and I shall make every conceivable effort to keep it so.

It would be a help indeed if at some point before then we could have a word, so that I may be preserved from the more egregious solecisms.

Again let me say how much I appreciate this friendly invitation.

Yours sincerely,

John Wolfenden, C.B.E. John Wolfenden
