MATH ANALYSIS, DATA TRENDS, & CONTEXT

- Areas for Improvement:
  - District Subgroups in the Red CA Dashboard include Long-Term English Learners and students experiencing Homelessness
  - District Subgroups in Orange on CA Dashboard include English Learners, Hispanic, Socio-Economically Disadvantaged, Students with Disabilities, and African-American Students
  - Overall, BUSD dropped 0.94% from 22-23 to 23-24 in Math proficiency in All Grades on the CAASPP Assessment
- Success Indicators:
  - Grade Distributions are improving in the percentage of students getting “3s or 4s” or “C or better” in Math for most grade levels.
- Continuous Investigations:
  - Rigor has been increased on local assessments (District Benchmarks given during finals) in Secondary.
  - Continuing PLC work regarding vertical alignment, number sense, and math mindset.
  - Elementary focus on number sense with low-floor – high-ceiling activities and Universal Screeners for Number Sense
