

John Zwanziger - Biography

Mr. Zwanziger serves as Vice President in Leveraged Finance at U.S. Bank in Minneapolis, where he has worked since 2016. As part of the Private Capital and Acquisition Finance team, he structures and executes debt financing solutions for companies, partnering with Private Equity firms across a range of industries. He is a graduate of the University of St. Thomas.

In addition to his professional role, John volunteers his time mentoring students on business, career, and financial literacy skills, while leading and participating in community service events. He and his wife are proud and busy parents of three, including two Cologne Academy scholars. He enjoys coaching youth sports, spending time outdoors with his family, and cheering on Minnesota sports teams. Serving on the board, John advocates for Cologne Academy's students, staff, and the future of the school.
