

Mission Statement

The mission of DeKalb County School Library Media Centers is to provide students with the opportunity to become lifelong users of information. The library will support the curriculum by collaborating with teachers, by using instructional data to develop a collection that is representative of the needs of the students, and by aiding the teaching of literacy and technology standards.

