Oak Grove School District

District Expectations for Student Success

The Oak Grove School district recognizes that to ensure every student reaches their fullest potential, the school environment should be characterized by positive interpersonal relationships among students and between students and staff. Every student has the right to learn in a safe, mutually respectful, culturally sustaining, and welcoming environment. Every educator has the right to teach in an atmosphere free from disruption and obstacles that impede learning. In this community, students, families and staff know that mistakes are opportunities to learn. This is done by empowering students to learn through collaboration and choice where learning the skills to manage emotions, manage conflict, taking responsibility, repairing harm, and restoring relationships are both explicitly taught and practiced. To that end, Oak Grove School District is committed to helping schools develop a Multi-Tiered System of Support that focuses on meeting the academic, social, and emotional needs of students. A Multi-Tiered System of Support (MTSS) helps schools and districts to organize resources through alignment of academic standards, behavioral expectations, and social and emotional learning and supports, implemented with fidelity and sustained over time, in order to accelerate the performance of every student to achieve and/or exceed proficiency (their fullest potential).

Each school site's MTSS Framework and Plan includes: academic, behavior, and social emotional supports and interventions that include but are not limited to; teaching positive school rules; implementing a social and emotional skills development curriculum and practice; positively encouraging and reinforcing appropriate student behavior; using effective classroom management; providing early intervention and support strategies for mistaken conduct; and appropriate use of logical and meaningful consequences that promote learning and include the use of restorative practices.

PBIS is a model of student support that uses proactive classroom and site-based strategies designed to prevent discipline problems and is proven by research to be the most effective discipline system. The guiding principle of the PBIS philosophy is that students must first be supported in learning the skills necessary to enhance a positive, mutually respectful, school climate to avoid negative behavior before consequences are given. The research also shows that when students clearly understand behavioral expectations and why they exist, there is a strong link between a positive school climate and academic success for all students.

In addition to proactively co-developing, communicating, and teaching appropriate behavior and routines that contribute to a positive school climate, in OGSD, we understand that students will make mistakes. Further, in OGSD, we understand that behavior is purposive. Misbehavior is interpreted as a solution to another problem that is unstated or out of awareness. Just as in academics, mistakes are seen as opportunities to learn. The goal is to promote reflection to develop self- and social-awareness, to identify and learn mutually respectful solutions to problems, and to put those solutions to practice.

The OGSD MTSS Framework as well as this OGSD Behavior Expectations and Matrix Manual document provides additional guidance to students, parents/guardians, teachers, and administrators regarding appropriate student behavior as well as District behavioral expectations. It is with the understanding, collaboration, and cooperation of everyone who has a stake in the education of our youth that we can succeed in creating learning environments that are conducive to optimum academic achievement for all students.

District-Wide Discipline Committee Meeting Summary

California Education Code Section 48900 and 48915, states that school districts must notify the parents/guardians of all pupils registered in schools of the district's rules pertaining to student discipline. California Education Code Section 35291.5 authorizes each school to develop discipline rules and procedures.

Assembly Bill (AB) 1729 and 420 amend Section 48900 relating to pupil rights and discipline. Effective January 2015, Assembly Bill No. 420 eliminates the authority to suspend a pupil enrolled in Kindergarten or any of grades 1 to 3, inclusive, and the authority to recommend for expulsion a pupil enrolled in Kindergarten or any of grades 1 to 12, inclusive, for disrupting school activities or otherwise defying the valid authority of those school personnel engaged in the performance of their duties. Effective July 2020, Senate Bill No. 419 added grade 4-5 and 6-8 shall not be suspended and K-12 recommended for expulsion.

To conform to laws and develop a uniform discipline matrix consistent with the Education Code, the Oak Grove School District created a District-Wide Discipline Committee. The Discipline Committee consisted of three sub committees including the Behavior Matrix Committee, the PBIS Mentors, and the Wellness Committee. These committees were comprised of district coordinators, principals, assistant principals, teachers, counselors, school psychologists, school social workers, school site secretaries, administrative staff, and were supported by Dr. Felicia Stucky-Smith, and chaired by Dr. Genieve Dorsey, Director of Student, Family, Community Services.

The Committee met regularly to review, discuss, and updated OGSD's Discipline Matrix. The District-wide Discipline Committee Members incorporated feedback from school administrators on Other Means of Correction (OMC), updated and added definition of terms, prepared a table on the severity level of violations, and ranked the levels of the OMC (Levels 1-3) to align with the Education Code. Education Code 48900 (k) offenses were reviewed and updated to include specific OMC for 1st, 2nd and additional occurrences. The PBIS Mentors revised and aligned a common tiered system of support and interventions as it relates to the classroom. And the Wellness Committee contributed to the articulation of the Behavior Matrix's Vision and Mission.

OGSD Behavior Matrix Overview

The Behavior Matrix was developed for all schools within the Oak Grove School District and establishes a uniform discipline code for the district. Additionally, the Behavior Matrix outlines Other Means of Correction (OMC) and interventions that school sites may use to promote reflection, restoration, and the teaching of appropriate behavior, as well as consequences that may be issued for inappropriate behaviors. Interventions and consequences are most effective with students when they deal directly with the problems fairly, impartially, and are equitably and culturally responsive. Therefore, the OGSD behavior matrix provides schools with supportive responses to behavior practices.

Each administrator must consider several factors in determining the appropriate interventions, OMCs, and consequences to correct appropriate student behaviors. These factors include, but are not limited to:

- Age, health, and maturation of the student
- Cultural considerations
- Are behaviors related to a student's disability (IEP or Section 504)
- Student's understanding of the impact of their behavior
- Student's willingness to repair the harm caused by their behavior
- Seriousness of the behavior offense and the degree of harm caused
- Impact of the incident on the overall school community
- Whether the student's violation threatened the safety of any student or staff member
- The likelihood that a lesser intervention, consequence, or OMC would adequately address the violation.

Behavior Matrix Introduction

The following matrix outlines the California State Education Code Violations and the disciplinary interventions and consequences for each violation. Education Code 48900(a)-48900.7 offenses are outlined below. Interventions are offered and consequences are given when a student commits one of these violations.

Education Code 48900.5 states Suspension shall be imposed only when other means of correction fail to bring about proper conduct.

- Suspension may occur on the first offense only if "the pupil's presence causes a danger to persons or property or threatens to disrupt the instructional process."*
- Other Means of Correction (OMC) should be utilized as a first choice in all circumstances where outlined. Refer to the OMC Chart for additional Means of Corrections. (If appropriate, the administrator is not limited to one OMC per occurrence.)*

Education Code 48900 (a) – 48900.7 offenses. For these charges, the school has jurisdiction for those behaviors occurring: while on school grounds; while going to or coming from school; during the lunch period, whether on or off the campus; and during or while going to or coming from, a school activity. Administrators must consult with the Principal and Director, Student Services before utilizing 48915 (a) and (c) charges.

Recommendation for expulsion must be reported to the Director of Student, Family, and Community Services by the second day of suspension.

Education Code 48915 (c) violations represent the most egregious offenses and will result in the mandatory recommendation for expulsion from the OGSD.

For 48915 (c) violations, the behavior must have occurred at school or at a school activity.

Administrators must consult with the Principal and Director, Student Services before utilizing a 48915 (c) charge. Recommendation for expulsion must be reported to the Director of Student, Family, and Community Services by the second day of suspension.
