Second Grade

LANGUAGE ARTS
• Use more than one subject to develop writing projects • Apply digital tools to publish a presentation • Work together to develop comprehension of text • Create text for a variety of opinion, information, and narrative purposes

MATH
• Analyze and make sense of real world problems in math • Model and reason with addition and subtraction • Effectively communicate mathematical thinking using oral or written arguments

SCIENCE
• Ask logical questions based on observations of the natural and designed world • Develop and use models to represent concrete events or design solutions • Plan and conduct investigations based on tests • Select appropriate tools to conduct an experiment, use them correctly and report the data in proper units • Connect observations and experiences to explanations of events and design problems

SOCIAL STUDIES
• Design and conduct historical research that are based on questions developed around the local community • Use geographical tools to draw conclusions about relationships between geographic features and historical events • Explain issues involving the rights of people historically and currently about power and local authority

MUSIC
• Blends in a vocal ensemble • Performs and accompanies a variety of music

- Relate music to history and culture and a variety of purposes

PHYSICAL EDUCATION
• Demonstrate the elements of movement skills • Demonstrate control and balance in traveling and weight-bearing activities • Recognize the importance of making the choice to participate in a wide variety of activities that involve movement