- The brag sheet is due no later than TWO FULL WEEKS before your first college deadline.
- If you need a letter of recommendation from your teacher, they will also need 2 weeks.
- NOTE: Not all Colleges require a letter of recommendation. No need to fill out the whole packet if the section does not apply to you.

Requesting an Official High School Transcript

GAFutures.org

- Free to submit for In-State participating schools
- <https://www.gafutures.org/>

Parchment.com

- Around $6 per transcript request – can be used for out of state colleges
- <https://www.parchment.com/u/registration/9435/account>

Sending Official Test Scores

- ACT and SAT scores must be ordered directly from the testing agency!
- We recommend choosing colleges to send scores while filling out registration testing information for free especially for super scoring.
- ACT Scores- Request scores at www.actstudent.org
- SAT Scores- Request scores at www.collegeboard.org
- Testing agencies can take 2 to 4 weeks to send test scores. Please watch your deadlines and order test scores early enough to meet college deadlines!

Scholarships

- You can find your Hope GPA at <https://www.gafutures.org/>
- Once you are accepted then you should look for scholarships under that particular university.
- Use the GAFutures.org scholarship search: <https://www.gafutures.org/scholarship-search>
- Also, to keep seniors aware of current scholarship information, the EHS Counseling Office posts scholarships on the Counseling Canvas Page and the EHS Counseling website.
