Financial Hardship Eligibility Guidelines

- All children in households receiving benefits from Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP)
- Foster children that are under the legal responsibility of a foster care agency or court
- Children who meet the definition of homeless, runaway, or migrant
- Families who receive TANF or FDPIR
- Your household income falls at or below the limits on this chart for the 2025-26 School Year.
Household income is considered to be any taxable income each household member received before taxes. This includes wages, social security, pension, unemployment, welfare, child support, alimony, and any other cash income. If including a foster child as part of the household, you must also include the foster child's personal income. Do not count foster payments as income.
