- 3) Unit members with permanent status, who have been employed at least ten (10) years with the Yuba County Office of Education, are highly qualified and whose previous formal evaluations rated the employee as meeting standards may be formally evaluated every five (5) years. This adjustment to the evaluation schedule will be based on the recommendation of the employee's immediate supervisor and approved by the Superintendent/Human Resources Department. The immediate supervisor reserves the right to complete the formal evaluation more frequently.

In the event an employee that has been deemed appropriate for a five (5) year formal evaluation schedule changes assignment or supervisor, they may be evaluated formally in the first year of their new assignment or supervisor. The recommendation will be made based on this evaluation to adjust the schedule back to a five (5) year cycle if deemed appropriate by the supervisor. The employee may request a more frequent formal evaluation by their immediate supervisor.

- 4) Employees rehired by the Yuba County Office of Education, who have/had five (5) previous years of satisfactory performance, may be considered for a modified evaluation process. Following the completion of a satisfactory formal evaluation during the first year of reemployment, the modified evaluation process will be based on the recommendation of the employee's immediate supervisor and approved by the Superintendent/Human Resources Department. The recommendation would require one (1) observation and formal evaluation during the second year probationary period. Once the employee becomes permanent, the additional contract timeline requirements would be followed based on the new hire date.

B. Procedure:

- 1) By October 1st of each school year, the department head will notify employees if they will be evaluated and share the evaluation process, standards, goals and expectations. They will mutually agree upon the dates for the observation and formal evaluation.

- 2) Employee evaluations are an ongoing process throughout the school year. The formal evaluation shall include, at least one observation of no less than 45 minutes, a formal evaluation conference and a written summary of the observation and evaluation.
- 3) Continuing administrative support, evaluation and feedback to staff will be accomplished through walk-throughs, informal observations, participation in staff meetings, review of records, performance of related duties and responsibilities, and professional growth activities.
- 4) A. For probationary employees a conference will be held to review the observation form within ten (10) duty days following the first observation. A second conference will be held by March 15th to review the second observation and formal evaluation.

A second conference will be held to review the evaluation form by the end of May. The observation and evaluation form, review conference may be combined into one meeting as long as the conference is held within ten (10) days of the observation.
- 5) No area of the evaluation form should be marked "Unsatisfactory" unless, prior to the formal evaluation, the area(s) of concern have been observed, recorded and discussed with the employee, and the employee has received suggestions for improvement.

Assistance may include, but not be limited to, visitations, training, administrative feedback, and colleague support. A final conference shall be held prior to the end of the school year to review the remediation plan.

E. A permanent employee who receives an unsatisfactory evaluation and/or feels the evaluation is punitive shall, within ten (10) duty days, request to the Superintendent a second evaluation. The Superintendent shall assign an in-house, qualified, administrative evaluator to complete a subsequent observation, written evaluation and conference.

F. The employee and evaluator shall sign the evaluation and signify the date on which it was completed. The signature indicates the evaluation was discussed with the employee, but does not necessarily indicate agreement with the contents.

G. Evaluations shall be maintained in the central office. The contents of all evaluations are confidential and may only be accessed by authorized personnel.

H. The employee shall be informed of his/her right to answer, explain, correct or deny, in writing, any facts in question and have his/her reply made a part of their personnel file within ten (10) duty days of receiving the written evaluation. While the employee has the right to respond at any time, after the ten (10) duty days, the document will be placed in the employee's personnel file.

PEER ASSISTANCE AND REVIEW/TCIP SUPPORT PROVIDER, EDUCATOR LEADER, INTERN TEACHER MENTOR

The Peer Assistance and Review portion of this article, including the PAR Program Eligibility, Participating Teacher, PAR Panel and Consulting Teacher Guidelines, and all reference to it in the contract are archived until further notice.

The TCIP Support Provider language in this article will not be impacted by this adjustment.

Purpose: In accordance with AB1X, enacted March 1999, there shall be a Peer Assistance and Review (PAR) Program, hereinafter referred to as "Program" for all certificated employees. The program provides a mechanism whereby exemplary teachers assist participating teachers in the areas of subject matter knowledge and teaching strategies (California Standards for Teaching Professions, Nos. 1-5). It is understood that the purpose of participation in the Program is to provide peer assistance and that the Consulting Teacher shall play no role in the evaluation of the teaching performance of the Participating Teacher. Specific procedures and timelines are outlined in the PAR handbook.

PROGRAM ELIGIBILITY

1. Mandatory Participation

This component of the Program shall provide peer assistance intervention to permanent teachers who receive an "unsatisfactory" evaluation in the areas of subject matter knowledge and teaching strategies (see Evaluation Article).

2. Other Participation

Permanent Teachers who seek to improve their teaching performance may self-refer to the Panel for peer assistance intervention.

Beginning teachers having probationary or temporary status may be referred to the Program by the designated evaluator or may self-refer to participate in the Program. The Panel shall have the authority to accept or reject non-mandatory referrals from volunteers or principals. Teachers so referred shall have an opportunity to appear before the Panel prior to its determination regarding such a referral.

3. Exclusions

The Program shall not deal with teacher's employment issues that arise from accusations of neglect of duty or misconduct, which are distinct from teachers' evaluations in the areas of subject matter knowledge and teaching strategies.

PARTICIPATING TEACHERS

1. Participating Teachers

The Participating Teacher is a unit member who receives assistance to improve in the areas of subject matter knowledge and teaching strategies. There are three categories of Participating Teachers.

A) Referred Teacher

The purpose of participation in the Program is to assist permanent teachers in need of development in subject matter knowledge and teaching strategies. Permanent unit members shall be required to participate in the Program as a result of an "unsatisfactory" evaluation.

The Referred Teacher may present reasons in writing why their specific Consulting Teacher should be replaced and another Consulting Teacher substituted and to have those reasons considered.

The Consulting Teacher shall provide assistance to the Referred Teacher and submit progress reports as required by the Panel. The Consulting Teacher shall continue to provide assistance to the Referred Teacher until the Panel determines that the intervention has been successful or that the Referred Teacher will not benefit from continued participation in the Program. The Referred Teacher shall have the right to submit a written response to each report.

B) Volunteer Teacher

The purpose of voluntary participation in the Program is to assist permanent unit members who seek to improve their teaching performance. Volunteers may request the Panel to assign a Consulting Teacher to provide peer assistance. The Volunteer Teacher shall indicate the area(s) where he/she seeks assistance in his/her request. The Volunteer Teacher may terminate his/her participation in the Program at any time by written notification to the Panel.

All communication between the Consulting Teacher and a Volunteer Teacher shall be confidential, and without the written consent of the Volunteer, shall not be shared with others, including the designated evaluator or Panel.

C) Beginning Teachers

The purpose of participation in the assistance component of the Program is to support Beginning Teachers in need of assistance to improve subject matter knowledge and teaching strategies.

The Beginning Teacher shall be defined as:

- a. Fully credentialed first or second year teachers
- b. Intern teachers
- c. Teachers with Emergency Permits
- d. Experienced teachers who are new to the County Office

Beginning Teachers shall be served on a priority basis as determined by the Panel.

PANEL

To conduct an official meeting, at least three of the five members of the Panel must be present. No action or recommendations shall be voted upon unless at least two association Panel members and one county Panel member are present.

A Panel member shall neither participate in discussions nor vote on any matter in which they have a conflict of interest. Alternate panel members will be utilized in the case of a conflict.

ARTICLE 31

PROGRESSIVE DISCIPLINE

This article shall not reduce the rights of any employee as provided by the Education Code or other applicable regulations or statutes. This article shall not reduce the rights of the employer to discipline, suspend and/or dismiss an employee as provided in the Education Code.

Every employee shall have the opportunity and assistance to correct unsatisfactory performance or unacceptable on-the-job behavior according to the principles of progressive discipline. Progressive discipline does not mean that the employer must always follow designated steps prior to suspending or terminating an employee. Depending on the seriousness of the situation, the employer may immediately suspend or dismiss an employee.

Improvement Plan: When appropriate, the employer has a duty to assist employees to develop to their full potential and to assist employees in correcting performance or behavior through an improvement plan instead of progressive discipline. An improvement plan may include counseling, training and education. It must include recommendations for improvement, suggestions for achieving the recommendations, a specific timeline and the means to evaluate progress. Once an improvement plan is initiated, it must be followed through by both the supervisor and the employee.

Progressive Discipline: The supervisor's accurate and timely reinforcement measures and the employee's changes in performance or behavior are integral parts of the process of progressive discipline. Normally, the actions listed below would follow one another although individual cases may vary. The steps that should be followed with a brief description are:

1. Counseling interview: This is a basic step which should precede taking any corrective action. Counseling includes any formal discussion to assist an employee in fully developing their skills and abilities. The discussion may clarify the standards of performance or behaviors expected and, if deficiencies are present, assist the employee in bringing about improvement. The supervisor should record the date and content of the counseling interview for his/her personal record.
2. Verbal Warning: When a situation has become serious enough that a change must take place in the employee's performance or behavior, the supervisor will inform the employee the s/he is administering an oral warning, that the employee has the opportunity to correct the condition and that, if the condition is not corrected, the employee will be subject to more severe disciplinary measures. The supervisor should record the date and content of the verbal warning for his/her personal records.

3. Written Warning: A written warning is a formal notice to an employee that the verbal warning has been disregarded or the behavior or performance warrants a written warning. The supervisor and the employee shall meet to outline the change, which must take place in the employee's behavior or performance by a certain date in order that more severe disciplinary action may be avoided. A written warning should not be used unless the employee has been verbally warned about similar actions within the last twelve (12) months. The supervisor will request that the employee sign the warning to verify receipt of, but not necessarily agreement with, the written notice. The employee shall be informed of his/her right to answer, explain, correct or deny, in writing, any facts in questions and have his/her reply made a part of their personnel file within ten (10) duty days of receiving the written reprimand. While the employee has the right to respond at any time, after the ten (10) duty days, the document will be placed in the employee's personal file.

4. Written Reprimand: A reprimand is official notification that the employee's behavior or performance is seriously below standard and that continuation or repetition of the unsatisfactory performance or behavior may result in suspension or dismissal. The employee will sign the reprimand to acknowledge receipt and a copy may be placed in the employee's personnel file with copies of the counseling notes, verbal warning notes and the written warning attached. The employee shall be informed of his/her right to answer, explain, correct or deny, in writing, any facts in questions and have his/her reply made a part of their personnel file within ten (10) duty days of receiving the written reprimand. While the employee has the right to respond at any time, after the ten (10) duty days, the document will be placed in the employee's personal file. Although the reprimand normally follows a history of less severe efforts, there are situations when the seriousness of the employee's behavior warrants the reprimand without first giving a written warning.
While it is a matter of supervisory judgment as to when a reprimand is justified, if a reprimand is given without first giving a verbal and a written warning, the supervisor should be prepared to show that the employee knew what was expected of him/her and the employee's actions justify the reprimand.

5. Suspension: Due to the severity of a suspension, it is imperative that procedures be carefully followed. Depending on the seriousness of the infraction, suspension temporarily removes an employee from their duties without pay for up to fifteen (15) calendar days as determined by the Superintendent. A recommendation for suspension shall be considered when it is evident that verbal warnings, written warnings and written reprimands are failing to bring about any change in the employee's behavior/performance or the employee is involved in some form of gross misconduct, which would justify an immediate suspension in itself. Consideration must be given to the employee's rights to a hearing per the Superintendent's Regulations #AR4117. A notice of suspension must be made in writing and served in person or by certified mail upon the employee by the superintendent or designee. The notice of suspension will contain: A) A statement of the specific acts or omissions upon which the action is based; B) a statement of the cause(s) for which action is recommended; C) the Education code section, policy, rule, regulation, or directive violated; D) copies of the documentary evidence upon which the recommendation is based; and E) a statement informing the employee of their right to CTA Representation with the YCCEA President's name and phone number included.
