

Student-led ✨
Clubs at Ursuline
2025

Alumni Connections and Events Club

Through ACEC, students can be an integral part of events and opportunities that connect current students to their alumnae community. To become part of this, apply through UAU to help foster connections between Ursuline alumnae and students.

APASU – Asian Pacific American Student Union

APASU aims to foster awareness of the diverse experiences the APIDA community faces, educate people on different cultural identities, and provide a safe space for everyone to use their voices and share their experiences with one another.

BSU – Black Student Union

Educates members on Black Culture and issues while also forging connections between various communities. Students foster meaningful conversations and learn more about the black culture in our city through inclusion, diversity, education, allyship, and advocacy.

Building Bridges

This club allows students with an interest in service to collaborate on unique service projects each month! Students get service hours, serve the larger community, and spread the UA mission.

Chomped

Chomped cooking club gives students the opportunity to try new recipes, explore new cuisines, and cook with other lions.

Ingredients

- Friendly leaders
- A variety of fun recipes
- Learning new skills
- Building community
- Cooking for others and enjoying yummy treats
- Learning to honor allergies and dietary restrictions

EAT – Earth Action Team

This club is focused on overall sustainability to make Ursuline Academy more Eco-Friendly. Students learn about renewable resources, collaborate on ways to reduce waste, and hear from professional guest speakers in the field.

ESCUELAS HERMANAS

Escuelas Hermanas is a language exchange club that only runs through the first semester. This club is connected with a school in Peru called el Colegio de la Inmaculada, Jesuitas in Lima Peru. In our club we share traditions and talk about the differences between our cultures. This club is a good way to talk to people from a different culture and many people continue talking to their friends even after the year is over. This club helps the student in Peru to practice their English and for our students to practice their Spanish. Some of the meetings are through video call and the others are through a texting platform.

French Club

French Club works to educate students on French culture, teach about francophone countries, and promote intercultural knowledge and connections.

German Club

German Club meetings cover a wide variety of topics including German history, traditions, food, stories, and the language.

Hispanos y Latinos Unidos (HyLU)

HyLU focuses on empowering Hispanic and Latino students, fostering a supportive environment to learn and appreciate Hispanic and Latino struggles, culture, and values at UA.

Latin Club

The purpose of Ursuline's Latin Club is to promote the ancient Roman culture, to incorporate academic Latin with activities, to serve the community and the school, and to send a successful delegation to the Ohio Junior Classical League Convention.

Laurel Look

Laurel Look members work to promote self-expression through clothing, fashion photoshoots, and discussions. This style and fashion club allows students to explore current trends, express their creativity, and share their unique styles!

Life Skills Club

Students can join this club to gain a deeper understanding of life beyond high school. They learn how to navigate finances, build and repair necessary things, and overall increase their independence before leaving Ursuline Academy.

Medex – Medical Exploration

This organization allows students to explore various careers in the healthcare field through presentations, hands-on activities related to medicine, and fun facts about the human body. This allows students to meet their peers interested in healthcare careers while also networking with career professionals!

Paint and Ink

The Paint and Ink club is an opportunity for students to share their artistic abilities over various mediums. Students hone their craft while expressing their own unique creativity!

Publications

Extra! Extra! Read all about it! Do you want to see your own work published? Want to hone your craft, practice your photography and design skills, and share your voice with your peers? Join our school yearbook and newspaper to share your talents with the UA community!

RAC – Recreational Activities Club

RAC promotes being active and staying healthy. Through this organization, students play recreational sports with their friends in a comfortable and relaxed environment.

SAMEA – South Asian Middle Eastern Affinity

This club works to create a space for community, while encouraging students to explore cultural diversity. Their meeting themes include languages, religions, history, and culture.

Sign Language

We can foster an inclusive and empathetic community of openness and welcomeness through club learning of American Sign Language. We believe that communication should never be a barrier for people and strive to offer accessibility and communication resources, as well as create a version of Ursuline that is open for everyone. Our overall goal is to celebrate diversity, and UASL is a step toward doing that.

Ski Club

A place to express your passion for skiing or snowboarding. A perfect place to get involved with UA outside of school. Meets in December-March at Perfect North Slopes.

Spectrum

Spectrum provides a welcoming and inclusive environment for all students, with a focus on LGBTQ+ topics. The club aims to educate, engage, and enrich its members and the wider school community, with respect to the teachings of the Catholic Church.

Speech & Debate Team

This is one of Ursuline's few competitive academic teams that allows students to prepare for college and future careers in fields such as politics, law, ethics, etc. They learn effective research, argumentation, and presentation skills. Students can learn civic responsibility, teamwork, and public skills.

TAG - Theater Arts Group

This organization strives to give students the opportunity to create their own entertaining content and showcase it to the entire UA community. Students feel empowered to make their own way in the world and to foster their own creativity through this inclusive organization.

Ursuline Book Club

The Book Club is a place for students to meet and discuss books in support of their love of reading. All are welcome to their monthly meetings to share perspectives on books through discussion. No "required reading" for these meetings. Simply come prepared to talk and share, regardless of whether you read each day or haven't had time for a while!

Young Entrepreneurs

This business club is about community and creativity. They aim to prepare everyone for the St. X Pitch Deck Competition for scholarship money!
