We're No. 1!!! - We're No. 1!!! - We're No. 1!!! - McAuley is No. 1. The football Champs supreme for the 1975 season. This unbelievable reality unfolded as the minutes ticked away under the leaden - rain threatened clouds of the final game with Lourdes - for the championship.

The season started for McAuley against the tough Bogan A team - the same one that beat them in 1974. But - 1975 was different. McAuley won 6-0, and it was Defense! Defense! Defense! - all the way. The offense ground out the relentless steady yardage that won the game.

Then eager Mt. Assisi - never say die spirit - met the stonewall McAuley Defense - and McAuley won 6-0.

The third game was Bogan B - and the B pass attack faltered and failed - and McAuley Offense ground out 12-0.

Finally, the fourth game - Big Tough Lourdes. Lourdes, who just last Saturday bombed Queen of Peace 6-0, now looked more self-confident and tougher than ever. And, the McAuley Defense stopped them. The score was 12-0. The turning point could have been in the third quarter when McAuley Coach, Joe Tucker, sprung the "McAuley Sleeper". The pass carried 25 yards - to the Lourdes 15. Then 2 plays later, the old Statue of Liberty - for the first touchdown and 6-0. To emphasize the magnificent McAuley Defense - a desperate Lourdes pass in the last moments was intercepted by McAuley and ran back for the second touchdown - 12-0. McAuley is No. 1!!! 1975 Girls Football Champs! Hooray!

Congratulations - it was a wonderful season.

Xavier Film Series

"The Twelve Chairs", a work of American director, Mel Brooks, will be screened November 17 at Saint Xavier College, 3700 West 103rd Street at 7:30 p.m. It is the fourth selection in this year's film series featuring works by major American directors.

On Nov. 21, at 7:30 p.m., the Saint Xavier film series will present "A Walk With Love and Death." Directed by American film-maker John Huston, the film is a period piece of contemporary relevance set in medieval France. The 14th Century romance concerns a young noble woman and an idealistic student caught in the bloody crossfire of a peasant revolution.

Next film in the series, "Scarecrow," directed by Jerry Schatzberg, will be presented December 5. Information and listing of all films in the series is available on request.
