2025-2026 SCHOOL PROFILE

Bergenfield High School, located in Bergenfield, New Jersey, is a public high school serving students from grades 9 to 12. Known for its strong academic programs, extracurricular activities, and a dedicated faculty, the school offers a wide range of courses and opportunities for students to excel in academics, sports, and the arts. Bergenfield High emphasizes a supportive community, preparing students for college and career success, while fostering leadership, creativity, and personal growth.

Bergenfield High School has garnered several accolades and rankings that highlight its academic excellence and commitment to student success. The school has been consistently recognized by U.S. News & World Report as one of the top high schools in New Jersey, earning high marks for college readiness, graduation rates, and state test performance. Bergenfield High has also been named to the College Board's AP District Honor Roll for expanding access to Advanced Placement courses while maintaining strong student performance on AP exams. These honors reflect the school's dedication to providing high-quality education and preparing students for future academic and career achievements.

Bergenfield High School has been recognized for its success in the Advanced Placement (AP) program, with numerous students earning the distinction of AP Scholars, an honor awarded to those who achieve high scores across multiple AP exams. In addition, the school takes pride in its AP Capstone program, which offers students the opportunity to engage in advanced research and critical thinking through AP Seminar and AP Research courses. Bergenfield High's AP Capstone students have excelled in these rigorous courses, demonstrating their ability to conduct in-depth research and present their findings on complex issues, further contributing to the school's reputation for academic excellence.
