

Spanish I Scope & Sequence (2025–2026)

Course Description

The goal of studying modern languages is communicative competence. This introduction course introduces students to language and develops novice-level proficiency in speaking, listening, reading and writing. At the end of the course, students are expected to reach a Novice Mid-Novice High proficiency level and be able to engage in simple conversations within the limits of practiced vocabulary and structure. Students will also gain perspective and insight into the cultures of the countries where the language is spoken. Classes are conducted in the language as much as possible.

Notes

* Includes time for Final Exams.

The length of each unit is a specific number of days, but it is understood that there is a range of +/- a day. The purpose of the flexibility is to allow teachers the opportunity to plan for the needs of their students and to accommodate re-teaching or review when necessary. If pre-assessment indicates student mastery could be obtained in a shorter number of days, the additional time could be used for extension or carried into the next unit.
