

German IV AP Language and Culture Syllabus

Course Description/Goals:

AP German Language and Culture is equivalent to an intermediate level college course in German. Students cultivate their understanding of German language and culture by applying interpersonal, interpretive, and presentational modes of communication in real-life situations as they explore concepts related to family and communities, personal and public identities, beauty and aesthetics, science and technology, contemporary life, and global challenges. Learn more about this course on the College Board website. The district expectation is that the student will take the AP German Language and Culture exam.
