

Teacher Qualifications- Parents' Right to Request

Teacher and Paraprofessional Qualifications

In accordance with Every Student Success Act (ESSA)/Parents' Right to Know, this is a notification to parents of a student in a Title I school that parents have the right to request and receive in a timely manner, information regarding the professional qualifications of your student's classroom teachers and/or paraprofessionals.

The information regarding the professional qualifications of your student's classroom teachers/paraprofessional shall include the following:

- Whether the teacher meets the federal qualifications and state certification criteria for grades/subjects taught.
- Whether the teacher is teaching under emergency or probationary status because of special circumstances.
- The teacher's college major, level of degree, and the field of the certificate/degree.
- The qualifications of any paraprofessional providing services to your child.

Non-Highly Qualified Teachers

As a parent, you have the right to know if your child has been assigned or has been taught for four or more consecutive weeks by a teacher who does not meet the Federal requirements of highly qualified people.

Student Achievement

Each Title I, Part A campus provides, to each individual parent, information on the level of achievement of the parent's child in each of the required state academic assessments.
