1. Narrative description of the Prop 28 arts education program(s) funded. (2500 character limit).

The Proposition 28 Arts and Music Funding is being used to expand instruction in painting, drawing, and media arts. Students have opportunities to learn visual arts techniques, experiment with different visual arts tools, and expand their skills in visual symbolism and representation. In addition, students also have opportunities to learn media arts through a STEAM partnership which connects hands-on STEAM learning with community impact. Students build critical thinking skills and find purpose as they apply their learning and creativity to real-world challenges. The funding also provides arts curriculum, materials and supplies to support students'' artistic endeavors.
