

A Great Neck Community Education Trip

Visit TARRYTOWN and Historic HUDSON VALLEY Wednesday, October 15, 2025

Enjoy a day trip to Tarrytown. This day is all about beautiful scenery, fascinating history and great company. It is a perfect blend of storytelling, architecture and fresh air. The landmarks we are going to see have been meticulously maintained for more than 100 years.

We will be touring the beautiful, preserved home of Washington Irving. America's first internationally famous author and the man behind The Legend of Sleepy Hollow. We will have a guided tour through his whimsical cottage-style home. Visit the lovely grounds and gardens overlooking the Hudson River. Learn fascinating stories about his life, writing, career, and personal touches in the home.

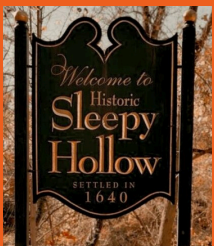

Next, we will visit Philipsburg Manor, a 17th century Dutch colonial estate that tells the story of early New York's Colonial times. Costumed interpreters showing us daily life in the 1700s. We will walk through the manor house, working water-powered mill, and barns. Learn insight into the enslaved community that lived and worked there. Take in the peaceful grounds with a bridge, stream and shaded areas to stroll.
