WHAT IS A SCHOOL COUNSELOR?

school coun • se • lor
/skul 'kaunseler/: noun

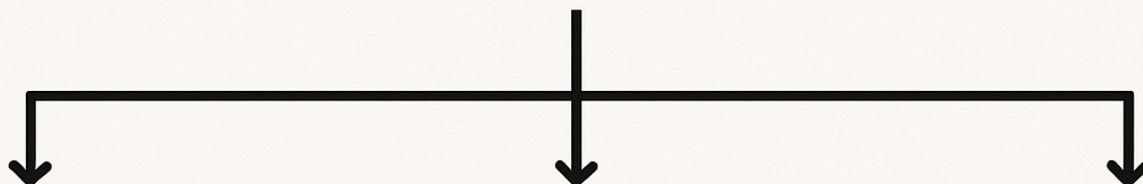

A multitasking detective, who acts as a project manager in their spare time while resolving conflicts and restoring hope. An unaccredited lawyer with legendary record keeping skills, who mediates and pivots on a dime, usually while under a mountain of paperwork. Master of empathy.

Facilitator of success.

I need* to see the School Counselor

Small Problem

- No one is hurt or in danger
- The problem is not that big of a deal
- I haven't made an appointment with the School Counselor
- Try one or two times talking to a family member

Try one or two different ways to solve the problem on your own

Medium Problem

- No one is hurt or in danger
- The problem has happened before
- I tried solving my problem and it didn't work
- I haven't made an appointment with the School Counselor (if needed)

If I am unable to solve this problem on my own AND my feelings are so big I need a break

MAKE AN APPOINTMENT

HERE

Large Problem

- You or someone else has been or might be hurt
- The problem isn't too big to deal with on our own
- I already tried the problems have continued
- I already made an appointment with School Counselor (if needed)

No Appointment Needed

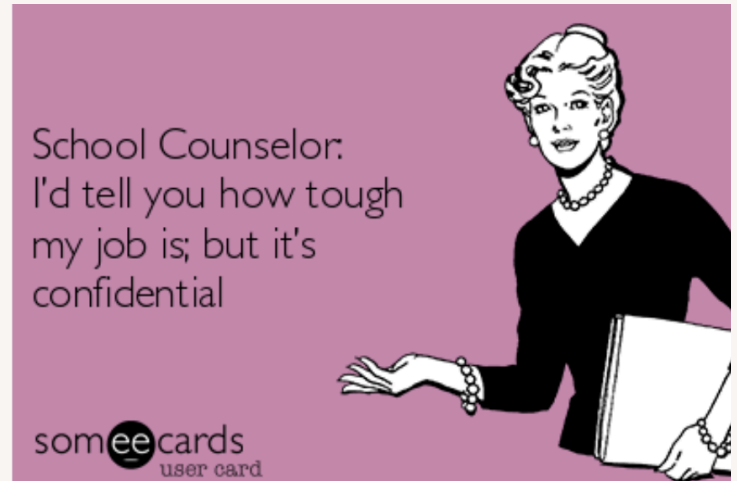

Ask to See the Counselor

If there is a SAFE adult around, tell them about it ASAP.

*NEED does NOT mean an excuse to skip class, hang out or get out of school work.
