School, Parent And Family Engagement Policy Hide

4060 COMBS ELEMENTARY

SCHOOL, PARENT AND FAMILY ENGAGEMENT POLICY

All check boxes marked in this policy indicate an assurance on the part of the school.

Type of Title I.A program

- Schoolwide
 Targeted

- This school parent and family engagement policy is developed jointly with, distributed to, and agreed on with parents of participating children, including parents of migrant and EL children. Section 1116 (b)(1)

Describe how the school seeks and obtains the agreement of parents to the parent and family engagement policy.

Combs Intermediate School prioritizes family involvement and provides multiple opportunities for parents and caregivers to participate in the Title 1 process. Title 1 meetings are held in the fall and spring of each school year, along with family engagement activities designed to provide opportunities for families and students to engage with the school together. We make all reasonable efforts to accommodate the schedules of parents and guardians for these meetings, and feedback opportunities are given both at the conclusion of each meeting through administrator availability and through surveys for specific events. Samples of engagement events we have include game nights, movie nights, cultural celebrations, community fairs, Someone Special Dances, and other events based on student and family feedback.

Communications In Place: Infinite Campus Parent Portal, Class Dojo, Blackboard Messaging via Text/Email, School Facebook Page, School Website, Automated Attendance Calls, Marquee Sign, and Peachjar Electronic Flyers.

- Parents are notified of the policy in an understandable and uniform format. Section 1116(b)(1)
- The school parent and family engagement policy is provided in a language the parents can understand. Section 1116(b)(1)

POLICY INVOLVEMENT

- At the beginning of the school year, the school convenes an annual meeting, at a convenient time, to which all parents of participating children are invited and encouraged to attend. Section 1116 (c)(1)
- The agenda reflects that the purpose of the meeting is
  - To inform parents of their school's participation in the Title I.A program
  - To explain the requirements of Title I.A
  - To explain the right of parents to be involved.Section 1116 (c)(1)

- The school offers a flexible number of meetings. Section 1116 (c)(2)

- Using Title I.A funds, to promote parental involvement the school provides (check all that apply)

- Transportation
- Child care
- Home visits
- Funds will not be utilized for these purposes

Section 1116 (c)(2)

The school involves parents in an organized, ongoing, and timely way:

- In the planning, review, and improvement of the Title I.A program and if applicable Schoolwide program plan in the school. Section 1116 (c)(3)

Describe how parents are involved in the planning, review, and improvement of the Title I.A program and if applicable Schoolwide program plan in the school.

Combs Intermediate School prioritizes family involvement and provides multiple opportunities for parents and caregivers to participate in the Title 1 process. Title 1 meetings are held in the fall and spring of each school year, along with family engagement activities designed to provide opportunities for families and students to engage with the school together. We make all reasonable efforts to accommodate the schedules of parents and guardians for these meetings, and feedback opportunities are given both at the conclusion of each meeting through administrator availability and through surveys for specific events. Parents are given the opportunity to review the Schoolwide Plan and provide feedback and suggestions during the Parent Needs Assessment survey.

We also receive input about various aspects of the school from parents, students and teachers through the Advanced Questionnaire survey that is also given annually.

In the Spring, data is reviewed, input is gathered and revisions are made for the next year.

- In the planning, review, and improvement of the school parent and family engagement policy. Section 1116 (c)(3)

Describe how parents are involved in the planning, review, and improvement of the school parent and family engagement policy.

Combs Intermediate School provides multiple avenues for parent input and participation in this process. Title 1 meetings are held biannually with opportunity for parent input with administration immediately following. Additionally, surveys are sent after each meeting, along with other surveys throughout the year seeking input around culture & climate, academic programming, and general needs. Additionally, the school website allows for direct communication with school and district administration.

The school provides parents of participating children:

- Timely information about the Title I.A programs. Section 1116 (c)(4)(A)

Describe plans to provide information about the Title I.A programs.

Information will be shared with parents at the Open House held in August. The school will also post information on the website under Title I.

The annual Title I meeting is held at the beginning of every school year. During this meeting, the parents are informed of the schools participation in Title I.A., as well as explain Title I.A requirements. We state the right of parents to be involved and encourage their support and partnership. We will utilize surveys to obtain parent input and feedback at the beginning and end-of-year.

- A description and explanation of the curriculum in use at the school, the forms of academic assessments that are used to measure progress, and the achievement levels of the MAP assessment.
Section 1116 (c)(4)(B)

Describe methods and plans to provide a description and explanation of the curriculum, academic assessments, and MAP achievement levels.

We host a curriculum night to provide information to the parents about the curriculum and academic assessments. MAP assessments are administered at this 3-5 school. Parent/Teacher conferences are also held in the fall to further communicate this information to the parents.

During the annual Fall Title I Meeting, the GLA/EOC/MAP and latest Galileo benchmark testing data is presented to parents in conjunction with our goal(s) for the year. The dates of implementation are given as well as the relevant data for each achievement level. Parents can ask any pertinent questions regarding the assessments.

Parents receive MAP scores by mail and at the building overview during the Annual Title I meeting. Info is also shared during Parent Teacher Conference and Curriculum Night.

District academic assessments are sent home quarterly. All info is available on our School website.

- Opportunities, as appropriate, to participate in decisions relating to the education of their children. Section 1116 (c)(4)(C)
- Responses to their suggestions as soon as possible. Section 1116 (c)(4)(C)

SHARED RESPONSIBILITY FOR HIGH STUDENT ACHIEVEMENT

School-Parent Compact

The School-Parent Compact outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students will share the responsibility for improved student academic achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership to help children achieve the State's high standards. Section 1116 (d)

- The school jointly develops with parents of Title I.A served children the school-parent compact.

The school-parent compact will

- Describe the ways in which all parents will be responsible for supporting their children's learning. Section 1116 (d)(1)

Parent will:

Show interest. Ask your child daily to teach you something learned in class.
Check Homework. See that your child's homework is correct, complete, and neat.
Create a Positive Relationship with their Teacher: Attend parent-teacher events and communicate often. Should an issue or concern arise, please avoid discussing any disagreements in front of your child. Stay in touch so problems can be handled as soon as they arise.

Read. Read out loud to your child. Have your child read to you. Ask them questions about the reading Take your child to the library.

Encourage. When you see your child's progress improve - even a little - pat him/her on the back.

Have High Expectations. Let your child know that you expect the best he or she is capable of doing.

In order to support their child's learning, parents will:

-Provide opportunities and support for a minimum of 30 minutes of reading at home each day.

-Ensure student(s) arrives at school on time and prepared to learn.

-Support their student in achieving 90% attendance as measured by minutes attended.

-Monitor cell phone, social media, and other device usage to ensure positive peer relationships and behavioral expectations.

-Attend conference nights and other school activities.

-Reach out to teachers in a timely and respectful manner with any student related concerns. If concerns are not able to be resolved, reaching out to the school office to schedule an appointment to speak with building administration.

-Consistently exhibit cordial and respectful behaviors in interactions with staff and follow all established school and district procedures and protocols.

-Respond promptly and positively to any school concerns regarding interruptions to the learning environment.

- Describe the school's responsibility to provide high-quality curriculum and instruction in a supportive and effective learning environment. Section 1116 (d)(1)

Staff will:

Assist students in reaching their fullest potential with the belief that all children can learn and be successful.
 Provide ongoing oral and written communication to parents and students regarding performance and assessment results.
 Enable each student to achieve and make progress toward meeting the Missouri Learning Standards.
 Assure every student access to quality learning experiences appropriate to their development.
 Teach students strategies to use in order to gain competence in math and reading.
 Encourage the implementation of a parent involvement policy that facilitates meaningful parent involvement.

Addresses the importance of communication between teachers and parents on an ongoing basis through, at a minimum

- Conducting parent-teacher conferences at least annually, during which the compact shall be discussed
  - Issuing frequent reports to parents on their children's progress
  - Providing reasonable access to staff, opportunities to volunteer, and observation of classroom activities
  - Ensuring regular two-way, meaningful communication between family members and school staff, and, in a language that family members can understand
- Section 1116 (d)(2)(A) (B),(C),(D)*
