Fairfield at a Glance

Welcome to Fairfield County, where you can find the iconic town clock and the sole South Carolina Railroad Museum. Our school district consists of five elementary schools and four secondary schools. Our motto, “Excellence through Teamwork,” highlights our collective efforts to help our students succeed. We take pride in serving almost 2300 students and employ a dedicated team of over 600 individuals. Our commitment to providing exceptional learning opportunities, both inside and outside the classroom, ensures that our students are well-prepared for college, career, and leadership roles in their community and beyond.
