About Armstrong Elementary School

Armstrong Elementary School (AES) serves students in Preschool through fifth grades and is part of SoWashCo Schools. Staff at Armstrong Elementary School recognize the value of teaching students to be successful in all areas.

- AES has a dedicated staff focused on academic excellence and community development.
- AES fosters connections through monthly character traits, weekly student shout-outs, and a weekly newsletter celebrating student achievements.
- AES organizes school-wide cultural events and greets students with multilingual posters to celebrate its diverse community.
- AES conducts an annual community culture survey to guide planning and includes cultural traditions in classroom and school events.
- Teachers provide targeted support for individual student needs through specialized services and implement AVID strategies throughout the school.
