About Pullman Elementary School

Pullman Elementary School (PES) serves students in Preschool through Fifth Grade and is part of SoWashCo Schools.

- PES fosters a strong sense of community by building meaningful connections with students, families, and the local neighborhood.
- PES hosts family engagement events, supports student ambassadors, and organizes monthly cross-grade team-building activities to create a welcoming and collaborative school culture.
- Integrity is emphasized through student-led initiatives such as the Panda News, which promotes core values, and staff collaboration to address students' academic and social-emotional needs.
- PES celebrates equity by honoring diverse cultures and traditions, involving families in PTA meetings, and integrating multicultural resources into classrooms.
- The English Learner program works closely with teachers, providing resources and newsletters to promote cultural awareness and inclusivity for all students.
