About Red Rock Elementary School

Red Rock Elementary School (RRES) serves students in Kindergarten through fifth grades and is part of SoWashCo Schools.

- RRES focuses on both academic achievement and the social-emotional well-being of students, recognizing the importance of emotional and behavioral skills in achieving success.
- Students are greeted by name each morning, fostering a culture of connection and safety, with daily activities that build strong relationships within classrooms.
- Every classroom has a “Buddy Class” where older and younger students connect monthly through learning and play activities.
- RRES monitors student literacy development three times a year, providing intervention for struggling readers and promoting a love of reading.
- RRES offers a daily WIN (What I Need) time for students in grades 2–5, providing targeted math support and enrichment to ensure all students receive the instruction they need for success.
