About Royal Oaks Elementary School

Royal Oaks Elementary School (ROES) serves students in Preschool through fifth grades and is part of SoWashCo Schools.

- ROES fosters a welcoming community by greeting students daily and building strong relationships with families and the broader school community.
- Students stay connected through leadership roles including student council, safety patrol, and student ambassadors, along with buddy classrooms that promote inclusivity across grades.
- ROES hosts engaging events such as the Fun Run, Fall Festival, and Turkey Bingo to strengthen family and community connections.
- As a nationally certified AVID school for over 11 years, ROES emphasizes equity by teaching organization, study skills, and self-advocacy while celebrating the diversity of its students and families.
- Excellence and innovation are supported through personalized learning, hands-on coding activities, and resources such as the Zen Den and motor room to encourage mindfulness and self-regulation.
