About Valley Crossing Elementary School

Valley Crossing Elementary School (VCES) serves students in kindergarten through fifth grades and is part of SoWashCo Schools.

- VCES prioritizes social-emotional learning through Responsive Classroom practices, such as Morning Meetings and Closing Circles, to foster belonging and build strong relationships within the school community.
- The school's K-5 neighborhood structure and multiage classrooms create close-knit communities, promoting personalized learning, mentorship, and collaboration among students.
- Students have opportunities to develop leadership skills through programs like Student Council and participate in enriching activities such as the Peace Garden Club, Battle of the Books, and Valley News Network.
- Valley Crossing emphasizes equity and inclusion by using culturally responsive teaching practices and creating a welcoming environment that values and celebrates the diverse identities and strengths of its students and families.
- Specialized programs, including the Multiage Magnet Program and Gateway gifted services, provide individualized learning experiences to support students' academic, social, and emotional growth.
