About Woodbury Middle School

At Woodbury Middle School, each grade is divided into “houses,” in which a core group of students is aligned with a core group of teachers.

- WMS is known for its diverse student body and commitment to academic excellence, character development, and creating a positive, inclusive environment where all students feel valued.
- WMS offers a wide range of clubs and activities, including theater, student council, service learning projects, and more, allowing students to explore their interests and build connections.
- WMS promotes equity through its robust support programs, including English Learner (EL), Talent Development, special education, and affinity groups such as the Black Student Union and Gender, Sexuality, and Alliance (GSA).
- WMS is recognized for its commitment to academic excellence, being designated as an AVID National Demonstration School and earning recognition as a Minnesota School of Character.
- WMS provides cutting-edge educational opportunities, including a state-of-the-art STEM lab and the Spanish Immersion pathway, preparing students for success in high school and beyond.
