

Parents Guide to the

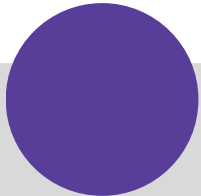

IB Learner Profile

at New Lebanon School

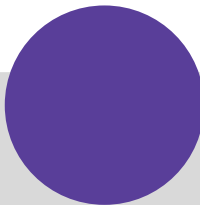

Internationally Minded

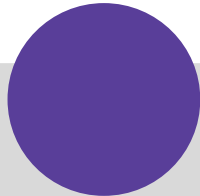

What does it mean to be Internationally Minded and why is it important

A thoughtful,
critical perspective
that applies to who we are and what we do

Includes how we communicate, our
political awareness,
cultural
understanding,
celebrating diversity,
global awareness of
global issues

A reflection on how knowledge is constructed and applied.
At NLS we strive to move students toward becoming people who reflect the
characteristics of the Learner Profile.

Inquirers

These students develop their innate curiosity. They learn research skills and demonstrate independence in learning. Their love for learning will be fostered throughout their lives.

Knowledgable

They explore issues, ideas and concepts, that have global and local significance. They learn concepts and gain an in-depth understanding of different fields by engaging in activities that help them understand these concepts. They are about the world around them.

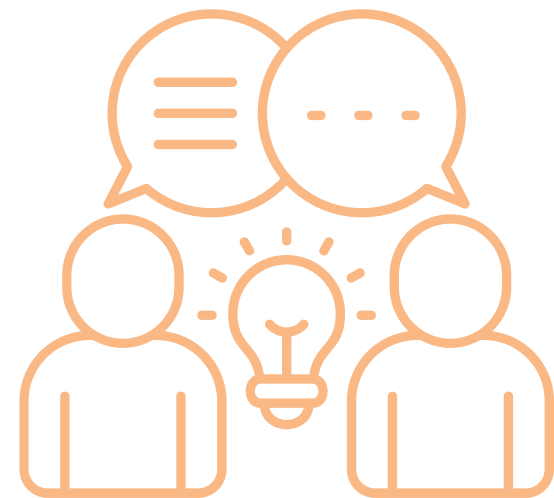

Thinkers

They think critically and creatively when approaching problems, and they're able to identify complex issues and make responsible actions.

Communicators

They express and understand information and ideas creatively and confidently in a range of modes of communication skills and in more than one language. They work willingly and effectively in collaboration with others.

Principled

They take responsibility for their acts and the learning outcomes that accompany them. They exhibit honesty and integrity, with an emphasis on a strong sense of fairness and justice for the rights of people, community, and group.

Open Minded

They appreciate and respect others' cultural backgrounds and traditions, and are open to others' views and perspectives. They're open to new ideas and willing to learn from their experiences.

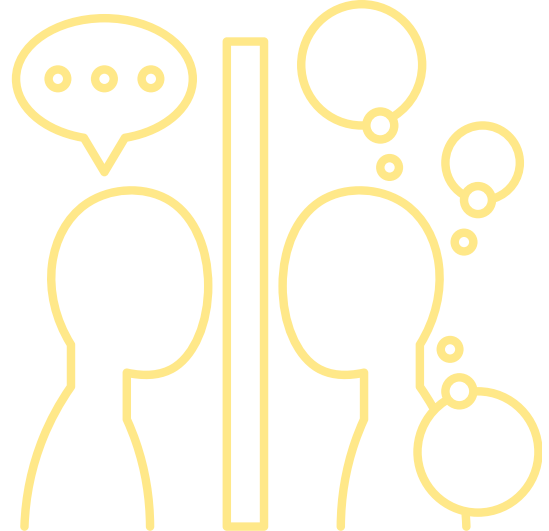

Caring

These students show respect, compassion and empathy towards the feelings and needs of others. They are dedicated to being in service and bring about a positive change in the world and it others' lives.

Risk Takers

They show the courage to deal with uncertainty and unfamiliar situations and have an independent spirit to explore innovative strategies, new ideas and roles. They are articulate and brave in defending their beliefs.

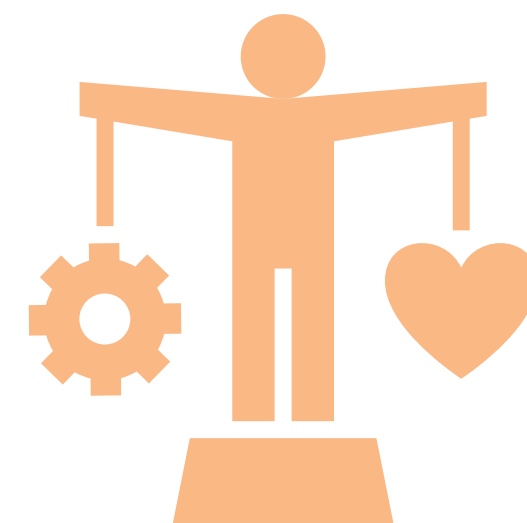

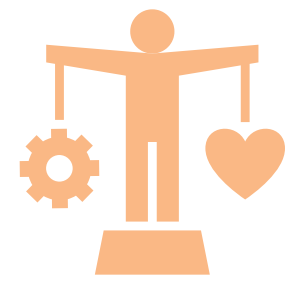

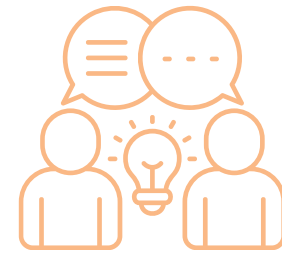

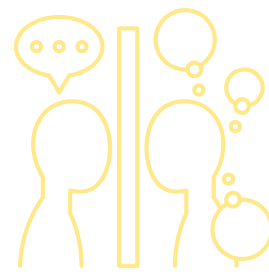

Reflective

They show thoughtful consideration for their experience and classroom efforts. They know themselves well enough to understand their weaknesses and strengths and use them to improve their own skills and knowledge.

Balanced

They understand how important is balance of emotions, physicality and intellect is for their and others well-being.

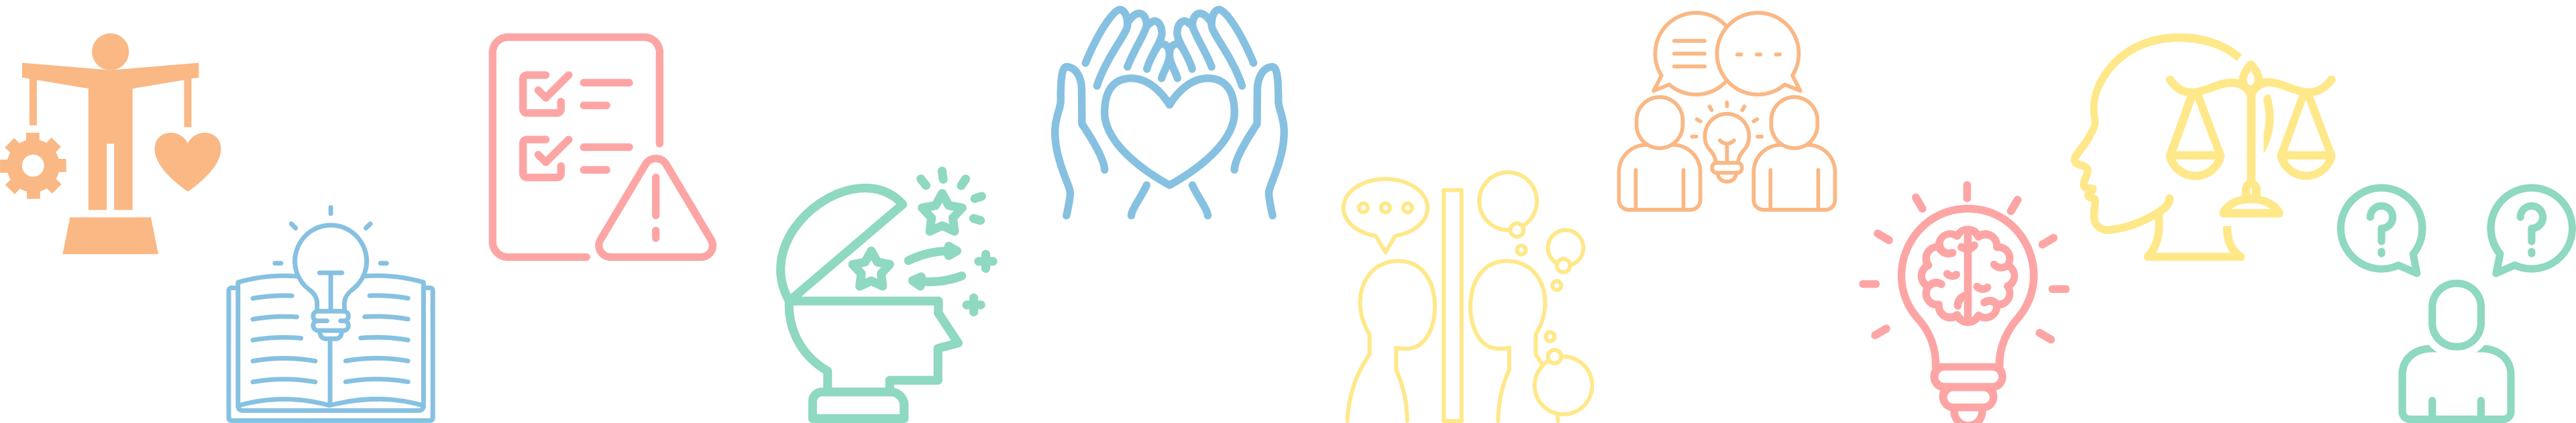

IB Learner Profile & our School Norms

Be Here
Be Safe
Be Honest
Care for Self and Others
Let Go and Move on

- Remember that the teacher will be teaching
- Interact with your child but allow them to work hard
- Take your cues from your staff guide

IB Learner Profile Classroom Visits

Upstairs Classrooms

KB - Ana Chejin

KI - Cheri Amster

KM - Darlida Ospina

1B - Fran Williams

1J - Beth Cotter

1M - Kathy Schnefke

2B - Lindsey Eisenstein

2F - Johnny Quezada

2P - Kaitlyn Cyr

Downstairs Classrooms

3CS - Sarah Herbst

3D - Lisa Moore

3F - Chris Carlin

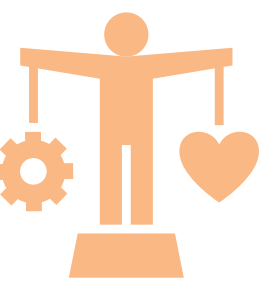

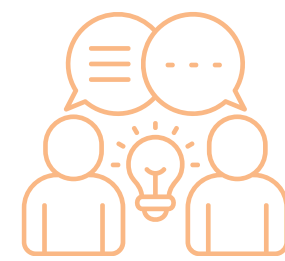

4C - Jane Stout

4F - Jill Carroll

4Far - Sandra Corrente

5G - Julie Van Roden

5R - Nicole McEaney

IB Learner Profile Around the Building

IB Learner of the Month

CARING

September 29, 2023