- C. The failure of an employee or the Association to act on any grievance within the time limits prescribed in this grievance procedure will act as a bar to any further appeal, and an administrator's failure to give a decision within the time limits shall permit the grievant to proceed to the next step. The time limits, however, may be extended by mutual agreement, either oral or in writing.

The grievant, acting independently or through the Association, may present a written grievance to the Board or may request an oral hearing, which will be granted at the discretion of the Board. If granted, the hearing will be conducted by the full Board or by a subcommittee of the Board. The Board shall render its decision within ten (10) working days after the meeting

Step 4 - In the event the grievant is not satisfied with the disposition of their grievance at Step 3, the grievance may be submitted to binding arbitration within ten (10) working days after receipt of the Board's answer in Step 3. The parties shall attempt to agree upon an arbitrator within ten (10) working days after receipt of the notice of referral. In the event the parties are unable to agree upon an arbitrator within the ten (10) day period, the parties shall request an arbitrator from the American Arbitration Association. The selection of the arbitrator shall follow the standard operating procedures set forth by the American Arbitration Association. The arbitrator shall have no right to amend, modify, nullify, ignore, add to or subtract from the provisions of the Agreement. They shall consider and decide only the specific issues submitted to them in writing and shall have no authority to make any decision or recommendation on any other issue not based solely upon their interpretation of the meaning or application of the specific term(s) of this Agreement, which has allegedly been violated, misinterpreted or misapplied under the facts of the grievance presented. The fees of the arbitrator shall be divided equally between both parties. All other expenses shall be paid by the party incurring them.
