Stay connected.

Stay curious.

Parent and student login information
will be sent home once the portal opens.
This is usually around Labor Day.

Returning BCS parents log in to canvas with same info as last year; new parents to BCS will get an email from Canvas for an account. Mrs. Taylor can reset passwords!

Lynx Lair
Technology
Information and Expectations

iPad Information:

- Each student is provided a 10th Generation iPad, charger, and keyboard/trackpad case. A stylus pen is not provided, but is recommended.
- The iPads belong to BCS. Insurance fee covers THREE repairs per year! Excessive repairs will result in the loss of taking the iPad home or loss of iPad totally.
- ONE free replacement charger is covered with insurance per year. Each additional charger is $50.
- Stickers can only go on the case, not the iPad; do not write on the iPad or the case.
- Nothing you have on the iPad is private! Email is for school use only and is not to be used to chat with your friends.
- All Social Media, Personal Apple ID's, Games, etc. are blocked.

iPad Information:

- Nothing you have on the iPad is private! Email is for school use only and is not to be used to chat with your friends.

iPad Expectations

- iPads should be charged to 100% each morning and brought to class. Loaners are not given, except for a district test!
- Keep your charger at home! If you must bring it to school, label it. Do not leave chargers in the classroom.
- Keep your iPad in a safe place at home off the floor and plugged in where it will not be a tripping hazard. Remember! There is an iPad in your backpack!
- Keep iPads clean and in good working condition. Can clean with a lightly damp alcohol wipe. Keep iPads away from food and liquids.
- Do not ever access another student's iPad, login information, or email. If you break another student's iPad, you are responsible!
- DO NOT leave your iPad in the car and DO leave the iPad at home on vacations.
- Keep iPad away from pets, siblings, and even other adults. The iPad is only for the BLMS students' use

iPad Consequences

These are just a few of the possible consequences for misuse of the iPad:

- Loss of iPad use for a specified amount of time. Students would do all work on paper or use of iPad would be restricted to testing only.
- Conference with administrator and a phone call home
- ISS or OSS
- Multiple damages can result in total loss of an iPad.

BCS Tech Guidelines and Acceptable Use Policy

- <https://www.bartlettschools.org/apps/pages/BCSLaptops>
- Go to the BCS site, you will find the above guide under parents and students.
- Read all of the policies to understand what you and your students are signing when completing the forms each year for the laptop.

The Middle School Brain

tips for middle school success...

#1

Get Organized.

Use a planner - paper or digital.
Have separate folders or dividers for each class.

Keep your backpack neat.

#2

Do your homework and strive for good grades.
They will probably have more homework in middle school than they did in elementary school. Use the time wisely!

Make sure you turn in all assignments on time.

tips for middle school success...

#3

Get Involved!

Now is the time to try new things and meet new friends.

The best way to do that is to get involved in extracurricular activities.

tips for middle school success...

#4

Choose your friends wisely.

Choose friends who make smart decisions.

Don't let other people bring you down.

Hang out with people who will have a positive influence on you!

#5

Be at school!

Attendance is very important.

Try not to miss school unless it is really necessary.

It is easy to get behind if you miss school.

Don't forget to turn in excuse notes when you are not here.
